Ike May Bolt Summit Meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower will refuse to go to a summit conference if the Russians carry out their threat to turn East Berlin over to the East German Communists.

He will take the same stand if the Soviets sign a separate peace treaty with puppet East Germany.

Any such one-sided Soviet action in the next few weeks undoubtedly would wreck the Big Four foreign ministers conference due to begin in Geneva Monday.

This American attitude became known authoritatively a few hours before Secretary of State Christian A. Herter's scheduled take-off for pre-conference strategy talks with the British and French foreign ministers.

TWO ADDRESS ALUMNI MEET AT SEMINARY

The alumni meeting of the Lutheran Seminary was held in the refectory Thursday afternoon. Dr. Harry F. Baughman, president of the seminary, told of changes and developments during the past year, the action of the board in appointing a committee to explore the desirability and feasibility of a proposed merger with the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia, plans of the renovation of historic Old Dorm, which will be used as a repository for documents and other materials of the Adams County Historical Society, and plans to renovate part of the administration building.

Dr. Dwight F. Putman, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America, discussed some of the aspects of the proposed merger of four of America's Lutheran Churches, of which the United Lutheran Church is the largest body. "The doctrinal positions of the four churches are quite similar, and agreement has been reached on the confessional statement of the new merged church," he said.

"Differences Of Opinion"

"Differences of opinion which have arisen among the bodies proposing merger are in areas other than doctrinal. Primarily these concern the two problems of theological education and the church's attitude toward secret organizations. The Augustana Lutheran Church, composed largely of people of Swedish background, is pressing for central authority over theological education, consistent with its own approach. Opposed to this view is the United Lutheran position, which encourages that

Teachers Elect John O'Brien

John O'Brien was elected president of the Gettysburg Branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association Wednesday afternoon at a meeting in the high school cafeteria with approximately 75 attending. Other officers elected were: first and second vice presidents, Mrs. Ann Stahle and Robert Diehl; secretary, Mrs. Helda Tilberg; treasurer, Donald Tiziani; delegate, Mrs. Dorothy Sprigg, and alternate delegate, John Held.

Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle spoke to the group.

Mrs. Kathryn Pender has headed the teachers' organization for the last year.

GIVE AWARDS AT COLLEGE WAA BANQUET

"Next year we'll begin to see a little daylight when the Student Union building is completed," Henry T. Bream, director of athletics at Gettysburg College, said as he recounted some of the problems in connection with scheduling time for both men's and women's athletic activities in the limited gymnasium facilities at the college. He told the 50 members and guests at the Women's Athletic Association banquet Thursday evening in the college dining hall that the gymnasium in the new building will alleviate the problem but he foresaw the real solution in a physical education building which he said will be built some day on the campus.

Bream commended Miss Grace C. Kenney and her staff "on the job they've done this year" in athletics for women at the college. "I commend the girls, too," he said.

"Athletics," Bream said, "is an essential part of college life, of high school life." He quoted former President Hoover as having said, "Athletics, next to religion, has done more good for youth than anything in America today."

Several deans were among the guests and Bream said: "I have spent my life in athletics and I want to say in the presence of all of these deans that I'm not sorry. If I had it to do over, I'd do the same again."

Other Values

John W. Shainline, dean of students, spoke "about the less obvious values of physical education." He cited the "psychologi-

REC PARK MAY GET JET FROM NORFOLK, VA.

If transportation from Norfolk to Gettysburg can be secured, Gettysburg and Adams County youngsters will have the opportunity of playing in a "real airplane" this summer at Recreation Park.

Kenneth Dengler, chairman of the borough Recreation Board, said Congressman James Quigley telephoned him Thursday afternoon from Washington to ask if the board still wished an obsolete airplane, which it had previously requested from the Armed Forces.

Congressman Quigley said he had been notified that an obsolescent sweep-wing jet plane is available at Norfolk, Va., and that Gettysburg can have it for the transportation away from the field where it otherwise will be junked. All valuable parts had been removed from the plane, but what remains is the form and shape of the jet plane.

Looking For Cheap Haul

Dengler told the congressman to phone Norfolk and say that Gettysburg is coming for the plane.

In the meantime he was hopeful that some trucking concern may be contemplating a trip to Norfolk in the next few days to deliver a load and would like to bring the airplane back — cheap.

While money is scarce in the recreation, enough can be scraped together to pay a small freight fee, Dengler said.

Upon its arrival here the jet plane will be placed on a concrete base so youngsters can walk its wings—at a safe altitude of a foot or so off the ground, and clamber into the cockpit and dream of being jet air aces flying through the skies.

Deputy Chief Of Defense Quarles Dies In His Sleep

WASHINGTON (AP) — Deputy Secretary of Defense Donald A. Quarles died today.

Quarles, second ranking defense official since 1957 and former secretary of the Air Force, died in his sleep.

This morning Quarles' chauffeur, Clarence Mason, went to Quarles' home to drive him to a studio for an early television interview.

When Quarles failed to appear, the driver went into the house about 7:55 a.m. He was unable to arouse Quarles who was in bed.

Mason called Col. Stanley C. Lewis, Quarles' son-in-law. Lewis hurried to the Quarles home.

Attended Dinner Thursday

A Pentagon spokesman said it was believed Quarles died several hours previously.

An attempt was made to revive him, but he was pronounced dead at about 8:30 a.m.

Quarles attended a dinner Thursday given by Undersecretary of the Air Force Malcolm MacIntyre at the MacIntyre home, together with several Pentagon officials.

Later they attended an Air Force symphony concert.

Quarles was alone in the house at the time of his death. Mrs. Quarles was visiting in Chicago.

Quarles was born in Van Buren, Ark., July 30, 1894.

The deputy defense chief had not been ill, so far as friends knew.

Quarles had been mentioned as a possible successor for Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy, who has announced his intention to leave the top Pentagon post late this year.

Quarles was an official of the Western Electric Co. and a resident of New Jersey when he entered government service.

Joins Defense In 1953

He was vice president of Western Electric and president of Sandia Corp., a subsidiary which operates the Sandia Special Weapons Laboratory at Albuquerque, N.M., for the Atomic Energy Commission.

In 1953 President Eisenhower appointed Quarles an assistant secretary of defense for research and development.

Quarles became secretary of the Air Force in August 1955.

Says Cross, Not Big Stick, Church's Symbol For Today

"We have grown more humane in civilian life and less humane in war," Dr. Roland H. Bainton, faculty of the Yale Divinity School, said Thursday in a two-lecture series at the Gettysburg where the 34th annual Seminary Week came to a close early this afternoon.

Dr. Bainton's topic was "Christian Attitudes toward the Ethic of War and Peace." He covered the subject in two lectures, one at 9 a.m. and the second at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

"Greater concern is held today for mentally ill patients, crippled children and unemployed men but we have developed weapons which can wipe a million people off the face of the earth with a single blast," Dr. Bainton said.

"War Demands Hate"

"We have grown insensitive to shock and no longer comprehend the meaning of horror. Wars cannot be fought with love in one's heart. War demands hate," he continued.

In his concluding lecture Dr. Bainton denied the current policy of "mass retaliation." Following the earlier talk in which he traced the history of pacifism in the church from the first century to the present, Dr. Bainton spoke on the present war crisis.

"Up to Augustine," he said, "pacifism was for the most part the accepted position of the church. With Augustine came the concept of the just war to assure justice and maintain order. With the middle ages came a 'peace mindedness' which set up specific rules for fighting which included bans on battles on weekends and holy days and during Lent. Crusades became popular, and by turning the hostilities of the 'Christian cultures' on the infidels, the tensions at home were alleviated. Subsequent history looked critically at the crusades until the time of the Reformers. Calvin saw Crusades as a valid expression of man's fulfillment of God's will. Luther was against the Crusade, but he saw the possibility ow was being just in order to maintain social order and justice."

Church Must Speak Up

After discussing various sectarian peace movements, Dr. Bainton noted "the hardy witness of the Quakers and their unique

When the Gettysburg firemen begin their annual solicitation of funds next Monday it is to be hoped that they will receive a friendly welcome and that donations will be many and generous.

The local department serves a radius of five miles but the men are available to fight fires anywhere, and they do whenever they are called. All the members are volunteers. Not a member receives pay in any way. They are subject to call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, in fair or foul weather. They have but one objective and that is to encourage the elimination of all fire hazards and to put down a blaze as fast as they can with a minimum amount of damage. Surely this kind of service is deserving of more than passing consideration and financial support.

Families living within the five mile radius are asked to give something, if they are financially able. Those who are able are asked to give as much as they can.

Yesterday Hottest Here Since Aug. 21

Thursday's high here was 90 degrees, making it the hottest day in Gettysburg since last August 21.

Gettysburg Times weather records show it was the hottest May 7 here since 1949 when the high was 93 degrees.

Last year in May there was no 90-degree weather. The last time the mercury reached 90 here in May was on the 13th of the month in 1957.

Overnight the temperatures tumbled 38 degrees.

County CD Heads To Meet Tonight

Adams County's Civil Defense heads, along with borough and township CD directors, fire chiefs and auxiliary police chiefs, will gather this evening at 7 o'clock at the engine house, E. Middle St., to carry out another phase of the national Civil Defense test being held this spring.

CD Director William G. Weaver said he has been mailed a sealed "problem" which will be opened tonight. The CD organization members will then "solve" the problem on paper and mail in their answers to the state Civil Defense headquarters. It is anticipated the "paper exercise" to determine the ability of the county to meet a CD problem, will take about three hours to complete.

MOOSE PLAN ANNUAL PICNIC

Preliminary plans for the annual family picnic were completed Thursday evening at a meeting of the local Moose lodge at its home on York St.

Governor John W. Sanders said 3,000 are expected to attend the affair June 7 at the South Mountain Fairgrounds for members and their families.

Buses will make regular trips during the day between the Moose lodge and the fairgrounds to take members and families to and from the picnic.

Governor Sanders, Past Governor Henry M. Herring and Secretary Dewey E. Wolff were elected delegates to the Eastern Pennsylvania Moose Association convention to be held September 4-7 in York.

Officers of the lodge will attend a district meeting Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Lancaster and urged attendance by members.

A $25 donation was voted to the Fairfield Little League team and a $10 donation to the Gettysburg Memorial Day committee.

Eight new members were accepted and two former members were "re-enrolled." Sanders announced that during May and June former members may be reinstated by payment of a $5 fee and six months dues.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

STUDENT PASTOR

Edward G. Mertz, Pittsburgh, a middler at the Lutheran Seminary, has been named full-time student pastor of Felton Lutheran parish for the summer months.

WELFARE LAW CHANGES ARE CONSIDERED

Should a Public Assistance caseworker be expected to say whether a home is "suitable" for children before assistance can be given a family?

This was one of the searching questions that came up in a discussion of legislation pending in the legislature in Harrisburg. Thirty persons from the Adams County community and representatives of the Pennsylvania Citizens Association for Health and Welfare and the Department of Public Welfare talked over a number of bills now in the legislative hopper at a meeting Thursday afternoon in the United Church of Christ.

The bills are those that concern assistance, welfare and juvenile delinquency. Senate bill 364 would amend the Public Assistance Law to provide a test of "suitability of the home," proof that grants are used for the children, petitioning the juvenile court for removal of children from homes determined to be "unsuitable" and establish children's centers to be operated by the Department of Public Welfare for dependent and neglected children. The tests would be applied before assistance would be granted to a family with dependent children.

Tough Job

Miss Theresa MacMillan, central area director for PCA, who led much of the discussion, said that, should this bill become law, it would be "definitely difficult to administer." The establishment and operation of children's centers, she said, would be expensive.

There would be the possibility of the loss of federal money toward aid to department children payments, Mrs. Verna Myers, executive director of the local Public Assistance office, pointed out.

Others among the group expressed concern that the requirements would set caseworkers up as "judges" as to the suitability of homes and it was a generally expressed opinion that judgement would vary among individual caseworkers.

The bill and House bill 930 which would hold up payments to unwed mothers and their children and to married women and their children until legal action is taken

Four Injured In Falls Thursday

Gary Hartman, 12, son of Atty. and Mrs. Eugene Hartman, R. 3, was treated at the Warner Hospital Thursday for a fracture of the second toe on his left foot sustained in a fall at Gettysburg High School.

Brian Carney, 19, a student at Mt. St. Mary's College, received treatment Thursday for a laceration of the right knee suffered in a fall while walking.

Paul Funt, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Funt, 166 York St., was treated for multiple lacerations of the left hand and forearm received Thursday when he fell while running.

Ivan Dunlap, 29, Bendersville, received medical attention for a laceration of the left hand and severed tendons of the left index and middle fingers suffered in a fall Thursday.

MARK MOTHER'S DAY

A Mother's Day observance will be held in connection with the Sunday morning service in the Mt. Carmel EUB Church at 9 o'clock. The Rev. Alfred Gotwalt is the pastor. Sunday School will follow.

COUNTY FARM RECEIPTS HIGH

Adams County ranked eighth in total cash receipts from farming during 1958, a total of $19,711,540, the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture said today. The 119,000 farms in the state last year produced drops valued at a total of $762,818,904. This total includes government payments.

Adams County ranked fifth in corn production; seventh in wheat production; 29th in oats, ninth in barley and 37th in potatoes.

On January 1 there were 36,000 cattle and calves on the farms of the county. Dairymen produced 76,360,000 pounds of milk in 1958 valued at $3,681,000. There were 618,000 chickens on county farms on January 1. Last year they provided farmers a cash income of $3,463,000 through the sale of eggs.

"QUICK-CALL" CD RADIO LINK READY JUNE 30

By June 30 Adams County's Civil Defense director should be able to push one button here and sound alert signals on fire sirens in 18 county communities.

Reports presented Thursday evening at a meeting of the Adams County Fire Chiefs' Association at New Oxford indicated that plans for a "quick-call" CD radio set-up in the county have progressed to the point that within about two months the system should be in operation in 18 communities.

Hugh H. Hoke, Camp Hill electronics expert, working with the county firemen in the setting up of the system, said it is anticipated that by the end of the summer all of the county's fire houses will, for Civil Defense purposes, and if need be fire purposes, be linked together by radio in such fashion that sirens in all fire houses can be sounded from one central location.

Report On Progress

Adams County Fire Marshal John Murren, Glenn Ohler, Littlestown fire chief and president of the county fire chiefs' association, and Roger Myers, Fairfield chief and assistant county Civil Defense director, were others reporting on progress of the program which will permit county Civil Defense Director William G. Weaver, or others authorized to use the "quick call" system, to give the alarm instantaneously in any part of the county, or the entire county simultaneously.

Eighteen fire companies reported ed having ordered monitor radios and other equipment which will permit the sirens in the various fire houses to be sounded by a tone sent by radio from the Gettysburg central radio station. Eventually it is planned that the "quick-call" system will also be operational from Littlestown, McSherrystown and East Berlin central stations.

According to a vote at Thursday's meeting, the "quick-call" system will start the sirens sounding. They will be stopped in the fire house in which they are located.

More Consider Joining Loop

Hoke said the "quick-call" system will be installed first at the

CYCLE, CAR CRASH

Preston Harman, 38, of York Springs R. 1, suffered a bruised left foot when his motorcycle and a car collided at an intersection in Hanover Thursday at 11:20 a.m.

Hanover police said the car was operated by O. G. Diamond, 34, of Commack, Long Island. Damage to the motorcycle was estimated at $50 and to the car at $10.

Girl Braves Shark-Infested Waters To Rescue Her Friend

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A brave coed swam out into the Pacific Ocean Thursday and tugged ashore a youth who had been fatally wounded by a shark.

Albert Kogler, who died 2½ hours after the attack, had first warned Shirley O'Neill back to the beach by yelling: "It's a shark Go back! Go back!"

But when he cried for help the attractive brunette swam out 50 yards and pulled him to Baker Beach, just west of Golden Gate Bridge.

Both were students at San Francisco State College and both just 18.

Badly Lacerated

Kogler was still conscious but incoherent when sped to Letterman Army Hospital where he died of shock and loss of blood despite emergency surgery. Doctors said his left arm was nearly ripped from the shoulder and he had deep gashes on his neck, right arm and back.

The pair had gone for a late afternoon dip on an unusually warm day and were treading the water when the youth screamed his first warning.

Miss O'Neill, a San Franciscan, said she saw a heavy, dark body break the surface near Kogler after she had returned to shore. Tying the end of a nearby fisherman's line around her waist, she plunged back into the surf.

"I saw Albert struggle and he couldn't make any progress," she said. "He's a good swimmer, so, I knew he must have been hurt badly. I couldn't leave him."

When she reached him, he said, "It was a shark."

"There was blood all around us," Miss O'Neill continued.

"I was scared. I didn't know what to do, but I knew I couldn't leave him.

"So finally I told him: 'The only way I can do it is if you lie still on your back. Lie back and relax.'

"He didn't scream after that. The pain must have been awful but he didn't complain."

After telling the story Miss O'Neill was treated for shock and taken home.

COURT ORDERS NON-SUIT IN ACTION TODAY

Patrick Dealy, New Cumberland, an 18-year-old sailor, was found guilty by an Adams County jury Thursday afternoon on two counts of a morals charge. The verdict was handed up by Foreman John C. Stahle at 2:44 o'clock. The jury had retired to deliberate its verdict at 1:51 o'clock.

This morning the court directed a compulsory non-suit in the civil action brought by Lulu R. Valentine, Urbanna, Va., by her guardian, Louise E. Cutchins, Richmond, Va., against Milton R. and Edna M. Tipton, 356 York St.

The suit had been started to recover a number of articles including plates, saucers, furnishings, etc., which it was claimed the Tiptons removed last February 21 from Urbanna.

Tipton Testifies

Milton Tipton, the defendant, was called as a witness for the plaintiff. When he testified that Miss Valentine had given him and his wife the articles and had given him a number of other articles to be distributed to other relatives in this area, where she formerly resided, and that he had distributed them in accordance with her wishes, a side bar conference was held.

The plaintiff's side then rested and Attorney Donald M. Swope, for the Tiptons, moved that a compulsory non-suit be directed. The court agreed and excused the jury.

Court Adjourns

Court adjourned until Saturday morning when sentences will be handed down.

The jury drawn for the replevin action included E. B. Geiman, Littlestown R. D.; Martin L. Yohe, Abbottstown R. 1; Samuel Dayhoff, Gettysburg R. 5;

SENIOR GIVES COLLEGE $100 FOR HIS DAD

Ronald L. Paul, a senior premedical student at Gettysburg College and a son of Mrs. Mary A. Paul, Harrisburg, called on General Willard S. Paul, college president, recently and said, "I'd like to give the college $100 to start a scholarship fund in honor of my father," the late Rufus D. Paul.

"I had been considering this for a long time," he said. "I had the money in a bank but decided the college could probably get a better interest rate. I know it's a small beginning, but I want to build up the fund while I'm in medical school and throughout my life."

Commenting, President Paul said, "This is a most unusual gift from an undergraduate student, but it typifies the man making it. He embodies the spirit of Gettysburg College, sacrifice required to build up the fund and thoughtfulness in memorializing his late father. Gettysburg is proud to have men like Ron Paul."

Ronald Paul, 25, graduated from John Harris High School, Harrisburg. A dean's list student in college, he was named to Phi Beta Kappa honorary scholarship fraternity and the Gettysburg Honor society.

He has been past president of the Sigma Chi fraternity, vice president of Psi Chi honorary psyhology fraternity, a defense counselor for the college honor commission and a member of the band and orchestra.

Asked whether he and General Paul are related, he said, "We might be. We talked it over and decided that we both be descendants of five brothers who immigrated to America late in the 17th century."

School Districts Get State Funds

Seven districts of the Gettysburg Joint School System have received $4,810.89 representing rental reimbursement for the shop and cafeteria high school additions, County Superintendent of Schools C. P. Keefer announced today.

The amounts sent the districts by the state Department of Public Instruction were: Gettysburg, $1,448.67; Cumberland Twp., $904.68; Franklin Twp., $894.52; Freedom Twp., $186.14; Highland Twp. $210.57; Mt. Joy Twp., $309.39, and Straban Twp., $756.92.

BOARD TO MEET

The May meeting of the board of directors of the Adams County Free Library's board of directors will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the main library on E. High St. President C. P. Keefer will preside.

TO OBSERVE MOTHER'S DAY

William G. Weaver, former burgess of Gettysburg, and county Civil Defense Director, will be the speaker Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at a special Mother's Day program to be held by the Gettysburg Eagles' lodge at its home on Chambersburg St.

Secretary John Storm said a buffet luncheon will be served to the wives and mothers of the members during the program. Awards will be presented to some of the mothers and wives present.

Storm said the local observance is one of a number of similar programs being held by Eagle lodges throughout the country.

Members of the Eagles, he said, "have a particular veneration for Mothers' Day because the idea for a national tribute to mothers originated with Frank E. Hering, first editor of the Eagle Magazine, in 1904.

"The proposal suggested by Hering and the Eagles was joined by other groups and the first national Mothers' Day was problaimed by President Woodrow Wilson May 10, 1914."

theological education rest in the hands of the constituent synods of the new church body.

"The Augustana Lutheran Church, the Suomi Lutheran Church (of Finnish background), and the American Evangelical Lutheran Church (composed largely of Americans of Danish ancestory) have all stated their opposition to secret societies, and particularly to having pastors assume membership in such secret organizations. Complete agreement of the United Lutheran Church with such a position is one of the points of contention which remains to be settled," he added.

Speaking on the possibility of a merger of the Gettysburg and the Philadelphia Lutheran seminaries, Dr. Putman said that many factors would have to be taken into consideration. Several of these considerations include (1) the projected size of the present seminaries in the near future, (2) the need for expanding functions required of the seminaries, and (3) the needs of the church at large.

Wedding

Yoder—Youngworth

Miss Gwen Youngworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Youngworth, of Flemington, N. J., recently became the bride of John Landis Yoder, son of John C. Yoder, Camp Hill, and the late Mrs. Yoder, in the Lutheran Church of the Atonement, Asbury Park, N. J. The Rev. Walter F. Forker officiated.

Deputy Chief

He is survived by his widow and three children.

By a former marriage, Quarles had two daughters and a son, Carolyn Anne, Mrs. Stanley C. Lewis, and Donald Aubrey Jr.

Acting Secretary

Quarles has served as acting head of the big Defense Department on many occasions when the defense secretary was absent.

Quarles started his climb from modest circumstances.

While still in short pants, he showed a bent for mathematics. He was graduated from high school at the age of 15 and because there was a shortage of teachers, so he said, he was offered a job teaching math in high school provided he went to the University of Missouri's summer school. This he did. The 16-year-old math teacher's first monthly paycheck was $50.

He went back to the university the next summer and again taught in high school. In addition he had some part-time jobs, saved his money and headed for Yale in 1912.

Captain In Service

He got his B.A. degree in 1916 and the following year he enlisted in the Army. After two years in France and Germany during World War I, he came home a captain.

Mustered out, he got a job in New York with Western Electric's engineering department, did part-time studying in theoretical physics at Columbia University. During World War II he had much to do with development of radar.

Quarles did not smoke or drink. He enjoyed good music well enough to go "voluntarily to symphonies."

"Sit Next To God"

"But I don't want to be put in the Puritan class," he once said.

When reporters reminded him that Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson had remarked that the man appointed to the Air Force jo must "sit next to God, have financial and engineering experience" and be one the Senate would confirm, Quarles chuckled and said: "Secretary Wilson had to revise that first qualification."

23 ARE ORDAINED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Twenty-three graduates of St. Charles Borromeo Roman Catholic Seminary were ordained as priests Thursday by John Cardinal O'Hara at the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul.

Among the new priests was the Rev. James E. Sweeney, of Chester, who will celebrate his first mass Sunday at St. Robert's Church, Chester.

135 ATTEND HOMEMAKER'S DAY PROGRAM

Mrs. Harvey Oberlander presided at the Annual Homemaker's Day program attended by 135 persons Thursday morning and afternoon in the Cashtown Community Hall. It was the final county homemaking program until next fall.

Elton Tait, from Pennsylvania State University, spoke Thursday morning on the "Art Of Listening." He told of numerous incidents where poor listening or poor communications caused a misrepresentation of facts. He concluded with a demonstration on proper listening.

Mosaics and wool garments, two of many projects completed by the clubs, were displayed. A highlight of the afternoon program was a fashion show of cotton dresses made by beginners in sewing classes. Mrs. Donald Doersom was the narrator. Dresses were modeled by: Mrs. Robert Gitt, Mrs. John Deatrich, Mrs. Roy Weaner Jr., Mrs. Francis Weikert, Mrs. Floyd Kuhn, and Mrs. Owen Bucher.

Miss Bell Speaks

Miss Helen Bell, also from Pennsylvania State University, spoke in the afternoon on "Your Management Quotient."

"A homemaker has many roles; wife, mother, coordinator of activities, consumer buyer, community server, worker, employe and each is vital to the family well-being. Each homemaker must learn to plan her time so all her management roles are satisfied," Miss Bell said.

Table favors were prepared by the Alloway and Frogtown clubs and floral arrangements were made by the Conewago group. The Rev. Henry Early, pastor of Flohr's Lutheran Church, gave the invocation. Mrs. George Krug offered the invocation before the noon meal.

Group singing was led by Mrs. W. R. Thomas, accompanied by Mrs. Francis McCleaf.

At the close of the program, Mrs. Helen D. Tunison, associate extension home economist, was presented with an orchid corsage.

COLLEGE WILL HAVE DIRECTOR FOR READING

Paul N. Terwillinger, Bethlehem, will join the Gettysburg College faculty September 1 as director of reading services. He will be a member of the student personnel staff, working under the supervision of Dean of Students John Shainline.

Terwilliger will teach corrective reading courses, developmental courses and a course for prospective teachers within the Department of Education.

He was born in 1930 at West Monterey, Pa., and after his graduation from Parker High School, he worked as an electric lineman. He served two years in the United States Marine Air Force serving as an electronics foreman and as a navigator.

Military Service

Following military service, Terwillinger entered Clarion State Teachers College and was graduated with a B.S. degree in 1954. White at Clarion he played basketball and baseball and was a member of Phi Sigma Pi and Phi Gamma Mu and named to Who's Who in American Colleges.

Terwilliger will receive a Master of Arts degree from Lehigh University in June. He has completed an original research project for his master's degree in which he investigated the social and cultural influences upon the reading ability of high school boys.

While studying at Lehigh, Terwilliger has been an assistant to the director of reading and study clinic.

He is married to the former Miss Shirley Ann Neal of Bruin, Pa.

Terwillinger plans to begin study this summer toward a doctorate degree.

Bribery Trial To Begin On Monday

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Dominick J. Alaimo, of Pittston, former United Mine Workers committeeman accused of accepting payoffs from the Knox Coal Co. to insure labor peace, will go on trial Monday as scheduled.

Federal Judge John W. Murphy denied a defense motion Thursday for dismissal of the 34-count indictment against Alaimo. He is accused of accepting payments totaling more than $7,000 in violation of the Taft-Hartley Act. Two officers of the coal company were indicted with him.

The Knox mine at Port Griffith was flooded last Jan. 22 by the Susquehanna River. Twelve men were entombed.

Balky Elevator Traps Two Parties

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — An ornery City Hall elevator given to stopping between floors, trapped a trial jury Wednesday and 27 youngsters Thursday.

For the 12 jurors, their hour in the elevator was annoying; for the youngsters from St. Ladislaus Parochial School their half hour in the trap was a bit of adventure and they emerged in high spirits. The children were on a tour of City Hall.

In both cases power failure stopped the elevator. Mechanics were able to lower it manually for the youngsters and they stepped out on the fifth floor.

But this couldn't be done Wednesday and the jurors had to use a step ladder for their exit.

STOCKS REBOUND

NEW YORK (AP)—Space age stocks, motors and chemicals paced a smart rebound early this afternoon from Thursday's sharp stock market break. Trading was quite active.

Pivotal issues recouped from fractions to 2 or 3 points. The missile-electronic-rocket fuel section recovered moderately from Thursday's shakeout, the worst market decline since last November.

Wall Streeters called the rise a technical rebound based on a desire to pick up stocks at reduced prices.

SEN. HUMPHREY ASSAILS IKE ON LEADERSHIP

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) Thursday night blamed President Eisenhower personally for what he called a "tax of unemployment" on the country.

"There has been no government thrust for full employment because our government has lacked that essential ingredient: presidential leadership," Humphrey declared.

He spoke before a York County Democratic dinner during a Pennsylvania visit which included a brief stop at Harrisburg for a conference with Gov David L. Lawrence, a Democratic national committeeman.

Possible Candidate

Humphrey, who has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, charged that the nation's economic growth under the Republican administration was off the pace set by Democrats before Eisenhower's election in 1952.

"Since this Republican administration took office, the American economy has grown only half as fast as it did in the previous eight years," he said.

"That 'half growth' has cost the average American family $3,000 in real income since 1953."

Differs From Johnson

In Harrisburg, Humphrey told newsmen the President failed to "give leadership on the issue of civil rights and he did not give it on many other issues."

His views differed from those of Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, who told Democrats earlier in the week in a speech at Harrisburg that Eisenhower won't be the issue in 1960. Asked about Johnson's remarks, Humphrey replied:

"I like Ike, too, but I don't think that because you like someone you release them from their responsibilities."

Cites Encouragement

Humphrey was asked if he sought Lawrence's support as a national committeeman.

"I didn't come here for that purpose," he replied. "Of course, nothing would please me more if I were a candidate."

Then he ticked off 11 states as having encouraged him to seek the nomination. They were his own Minnesota, Montana Washington, Oregon, California, Wisconsin, Utah, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota and West Virginia.

"It's too early for a decision," he added. "I doubt that anyone will go into the convention with a definite majority (of delegates)."

"COVER UP" IS HOUSE CHARGE

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's Budget Bureau was accused today of a studied attempt to cover up government liabilities by refusing money to build up the Civil Service retirement fund.

The House Appropriations Committee included the criticism in a formal report sending to the House for a vote next week a bill appropriating $6,438,839,800 to fiance a score of federal agencies for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The total is $252,348,200 less than the President had requested and $406,703,140 less than the same agencies were given this year. Biggest allotment was $5,020,266,000 for the Veterans Administration, which was given all but $9,259,000 of what it requested.

The committee cut $145,348,200 from new funds requested by the various agencies and ordered returned to the Treasury 107 million dollars of unobligated carryover money.

In a report written by Rep. Albert Thomas (D-Tex), the committee said the Budget Bureau had refused to approve a Civil Service Commission request for $773,734,000 to finance the government's share of payments to the retirement fund.

The committee said, "this fund is defunct by over $20,600,000,000."

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout Troop 44 met at the St. James Lutheran Church Thursday at 3:30 p.m. In preparation for their story-telling badge Mrs. J. B. Collins, W. Broadway, instructed the Scouts on carol readings for a program to be given for their parents at Camp Happy Valey Saturday, May 16. The leaders were Mrs. Walter Johnson and Mrs. Arthur Phiel Jr. and Mrs. John Caldwell.

Brownie Troop 32 of Fairfield met Thursday afternoon in the Scout room. Twenty-six members were present, the girls made fans and mats as gifts for their mothers after reciting the Brownie promise and singing the Brownie song in observance of the 10th anniversary of troop. A party followed. TThe girls were asked to bring a cup and saucer for their mothers to tea which will be held on May 17 from 3 to 4 p.m. in the Scout room.

Brownie Troop 71 held a tea and presented a program Wednesday afternoon at St. James Lutheran Church to which their mothers had been invited. Nancy Sherman was the announcer. Leslie Orner recited a piece "Who Loves Best?"

The girls presented a puppet show entitled "Phineas Rides Again." The cast included the following: Kim Hughes, Susan Linta, Becky Zentz, Patty McNair, Karen Culp, Marguerite Sergeant, Linda Stevens, Joyce Dayhoff, Marilyn Forney, Linda Shindledecker, Lissa Settle and Susan Ekdahl, Caroline Weaver was the curtain operator.

After the girls sang several songs refreshments were served by members of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority, sponsors of the troop. Each girl gave her mother a carnation which had also been furnished by the sorority.

The leaders were Mrs Harry Ekdahl, Mrs. Ray Culp and Mrs. Orville Orner.

Mother's Day gifts were completed by Bendersville Brownie Troop 29 during a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Bendersville Elementary School auditorium. Day Camp reservation blanks were given to the Brownies to be completed and sent to the Girl Scout office before May 29. Mrs William Wright and Mrs. Leroy Routsong, leaders, were assisted by Mrs. Glenn Taylor.

MOSCOW (AP) — Moscow radio Thursday called President Eisenhower's plan to ban nuclear weapon tests up to altitudes of 30 miles a "dangerous halfway measure" and said the Soviet Union could not agree to it.

The broadcast used stronger language than Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev did on April 25 when he said Eisenhower's proposal "will not solve the problem." He did not reject it outright.

Moscow radio charged the West with trying to avoid a solution of the question of tests and declared the plan suggested by Eisenhower "would not safeguard people against the disastrous effects of radiation."

Ask Another Hike In Postal Rates

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration has asked Congress for another one-cent increase in first-class letter and airmail postage.

If approved, the proposal would boost postage on a first-class letter to 5 cents and on airmail to eight cents.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield estimated such an increase would bring in an additional 355 million dollars a year. The current operating deficit of the Post Office Department is estimated at more than 500 million dollars a year.

In his budget message to Congress in January, President Eisenhower indicated he would ask for higher rates to help balance Post Office Department books. Many congressional Democrats predicted at the time there wasn't much chance for further postal increases.

4-H 'SENATE' FORMED HERE

Organization of an "Adams County 4-H Senate" was effected Thursday night by 38 representatives of a 4-H clubs from throughout the county at St. James Lutheran Church.

Assistant County Agents John D. Naugle and Duane Duncan outlined the purpose of the county group as "to plan county-side activities and promote development of leadership for the county 4-H groups."

Mrs. Glenn Sterner, Carl Ray and Miss Teresa Murren were selected as the adult leaders for the group. A nominating committee comprising Margaret Sterner, Mary Jane Bowers and Philip Nace was named to present a list of nominees for office at the June 4 meeting.

Plan Service June 7

Dorothy Anthony, who presided at Thursday's meeting, was elected junior leader. Philip Nace and Fred Strayer reported on the 4-H leadership Training School held last year and Glenn Moul, Strayer Yake, Helen Rex and Mary Jane Bowman were elected to attend the leadership training session this summer, with Audrey Yingling as alternate.

Preliminary plans were discussed for the annual county 4-H vesper service to be held June 7 with the Aspers Community and Upper Adams Home Economics clubs in charge.

Plans were made for a training course for club officers May 18 at the Brushtown Fire House.

The Upper Adams Home Economics club was asked to make arrangements for the June meeting of the 4-H Senate.

Ike To Weekend At Camp David

The President left the White House by car and was at Walter Reed Army Hospital visiting the cancer-stricken Dulles when newsmen were told of his departure.

position among pacifistic movements in being involved in social issues." They appealed to "peace minded" persons whether they were motivated by Christian concern or not, he said.

With the 19th century came a peaceful atmosphere through a balance of power and an American frontier which drained off dissatisfied minority groups. World War I brought in a new era in war history, the speaker said.

"The pacifist today offers a witness, not a strategy. He must witness to the 'peace minded' populace. Peace lovers must unite on a basis of concern for the world's populace and the Church must speak up. The Church must realize that its symbol is two beams crossing each other and not one big stick. Massive retaliation is not the answer. At some point we must demonstrate our faith in God, and realize that he is the God of all nations. If we destroy ourselves and the world, we deny this faith," he asserted.

"What Really Matters"

"A great many great men are answering many great questions from the pulpit that no one is asking," Dr. George Docherty, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church in Washington, D. C., said in his final Seminary Week address Thursday evening.

Speaking on "The Pastor," the Scottish-born successor to Peter Marshall in the capital pulpit, urger ministers to "know what your people are thinking and know the questions that are in their minds." He said pastoral work provides a preacher with sermon material and helps him to know what questions need attention in the pulpit.

He devoted considerable attention to a discussion of psychiatry and its heresies and counselling and indicated he agrees with Dr. George Buttrick, New York preacher, who concluded after years in the ministry that "if he had it to do over again he would devote more time to the normal and less to the mentally disturbed." He added: "We need more than psychiatry, we need theology to help people. Be sympathetic but avoid emotional involvement."

All that really matters between a pastor and his people is that you love your people and that they love you. A pastor who is loved can do almost no wrong but if he is not loved, a pin dropped in the church study can set off an earthquake."

Dr. Docherty delivered the Zimmerman Foundation lectures on "Effective Preaching."

Dr. Frederick K. Wentz, professor of historical theology at the seminary, lectured Thursday on the "Lay Renaissance." Dr. Wentz spent last summer visiting the evangelical academies of Germany, the Iona Community in Scotland and similar groups in Holland and Sweden. These communities have been formed since World War Two in an attempt to answer vital questions of faith-life which have been provoked in those countries as a result of the havoc created by the war. Some such questions include "What is the church and its real purpose among men?" "What does the church have to give modern man?" Groups of laymen assemble at these communities for retreats, during which periods they discuss their spiritual problems and seek to relate the message of the church to their own situation in life, Dr. Wentz said.

Today's final addresses were given by the Rev. Paul G. Musselman, an executive secretary on urban industrial church work in the Episcopal church, and Dr. Kendrick Grobel, professor of New Testament at Vanderbilt University. Dr. Musselman spoke at 9 and 11 a.m. and Dr. Grobel at 10 and 12 o'clock noon.

BALLET IS BIG BUSINESS WITH BOLSHOI GROUP

By WILLIAM GLOVER
AP Drama Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Ballet dancing is big business—when the Bolshoi troupe of Moscow performs.

Sponsors estimate the troupe's U.S.-Canadian tour will gross well over two million dollars.

But figuring the profit is difficult.

"For something as big as this," commented a management aide, "I can tell you one thing sure—the margin ain't big."

Wind Up At Opera House

This weekend the renowned company is winding up the triumphant initial stand at the Metropolitan Opera House. Next comes a week of added performances in Madison Square Garden.

After that, the troupe moves on to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Toronto and Montreal, where the visit concludes June 21.

Virtually all performances en route have been sellouts for weeks, to the perceptible comfort of the trip's sponsors, impresario Sol Hurok and the American National Theater and Academy.

Some Basic Costs

The Hurok office says the Met engagement brought in $700,000; another $350,000 will come in from the Garden; and "well over a million" is in prospect from the other four cities.

Skimmed immediately from this rich trove are what the Hurok office calls basic weekly costs. These include $50,000 to the Bolshoi management; auditorium rentals (the Met cost $25,000 a week); wages for 65 stagehands, another $22,000; the pay for 91 musicians, $25,000, and per diem allotments to all the company for hotel rooms and food.

Income Taxes Too

In addition to the basic charges are other costs for which figures are not readily available. These include amortizing the company's airplane passage and transportation of performers, costumes and scenery on tour.

At the completion of the tour there will be one financial item confronting each performer — filing a U.S. income tax return and paying any necessary sum on what they earned in this country.

Will Give Awards Here This Evening

An additional award will be made this evening at 7 o'clock at the final meeting of the navigation and boating course conducted by the Black Walnut Boy Scout District, Scout Executive Stanley C. Rogers said this morning.

Blaine W. Hughes, instructor for the course, will present Coast Guard certificates this evening at the session in the library at the American Legion Club building, Baltimore St., to those who successfully completed the course.

The scout district will present a certificate to Hughes, Rogers said, for his "outstanding work in conducting the course."

CAN HIT MOON WITH MISSILE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The nation's space chief says the United States could hit the moon with a missile right now, but it would be a stunt: The missile would be demolished by the impact and wouldn't be able to send back information.

"This is not the business for stunts," said Dr. T. Keith Glennan, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Speaking at a luncheon of the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia Thursday, Glennan said it was his opinion a man won't be landed on the moon within the next 10 years.

"For one thing," he said, "the propulsive equipment that would be needed to land a man on the moon is not now available.

"We are working hard to get a man into space but we are not going to try it any earlier than the tie when we have assurances he will be in no greater danger than a man taking up a new airplane for the first time."

Glennan disagreed sharply with scientists who contend there would be no great value in landing a man on the moon.

"We can acquire valuable information by instruments but there is no instrument quite as good as a man," he said.

Airman Glenn V. Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Kelley, of Gettysburg, has completed his initial course of Air Force basic military training at the Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. He has been selected to attend the technical school for automotive maintenance at Chanute AFB, Ill. He attended Gettysburg High School.

WILL RECESS STEEL TALKS FOR FEW DAYS

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel negotiators were expected to recess weeklong preliminary contract talks today for a few days' respite to digest economic arguments exchanged this week.

The industry-union labor battle has gotten off to a fast start with both sides asking federal government investigations of each other's tactics.

It was indicated, however, that much of the bickering so far has been the normal posturing of two protagonists getting into a fight rather than any real barrier in the negotiations.

Words flew Thursday in the separate calls for the government to keep watch on the rival tactics.

First, the union demanded that the Justice department and National Labor Relations Board probe for possible antitrust and labor law violations in what the union called company profit-pooling and lockout plans in case of a strike.

Denying a management conspiracy, steel producers said that if anything needs federal investigation it is "the concentration of power in the union which is what gives rise to the problems of (industry) self-protection."

Expect Progress

Later, R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for the U.S. Steel Corp., and Union President David J. McDonald agreed that more progress would be made in negotiations before current contracts expire June 30 if "we work at it privately and diligently."

Cooper said Wednesday that the steel firms were considering plans to combat any "divide and conquer" strike strategy the union might employ. Cooper denied an assertion by Union Counsel Arthur J. Goldberg that the industry was considering a profit-sharing plan in event of a partial strike.

Among specific devices under study by the industry, Cooper said, is a mutual aid pact of the type adopted last fall by six major airlines. Under this agreement, lines grounded by strikes receive the extra revenues made

The union, which has not yet spelled out its demands since the talks started Tuesday, has said it will seek a sizable wage boost plus fringe benefits. Present steel wages average $2.02 an hour. The average price of steel is $150 a ton.

Young Slayer Of Cop Hanged Despite Protests

LONDON (AP) — Ronald Marwood, a 25-year-old cop killer, was hanged today in Pentonville Prison while hundreds of Britons milled about the gates protesting the execution.

The crowd outside stood an all-night vigil, and inside the jail prisoners rioted for half an hour demanding that the hanging be called off.

The execution took place only 200 yards from the home of the man convicted of murdering a policeman—one of the few crimes that can get the death penalty under Britain's modified capital punishment law.

In the crowd of about 1,000 outside the prison were some carrying placards reading "save Marwood," "revenge is contrary to justice" and "is Marwood really guilty?"

The condemned man's pretty 20-year-old wife Rosalie waited in an apartment only 200 yards from the prison and read over and again the last letter from her husband.

She had collected almost alone more than 10,000 signatures to a petition seeking clemency. Another plea came from 150 members of Parliament—including 25 per cent of the members of the House of Commons—who opposed the death penalty for Marwood.

Home Secretary Richard Butler turned them all down.

Adams Motorist In Nearby Accident

A Gettysburg R. 4 man's car was one of three involved in a crash Thursday in Chambersburg. A Chambersburg woman, Mrs. Elizabeth P. Omwake, was treated at the Chambersburg Hospital for a bruise of the forehead and an injury of the left hip. No one else was injured.

According to Chambersburg police, Mrs Omwake was driving south at an intersection when it was struck by a westbound car driven by George W. Taughinbaugh, Gettysburg R. 4, employed by the Department of Revenue as an inheritance tax appraiser. The Omwake car was shoved into the car of Russel W. Frutchey, Chambersburg, county detective, who was waiting on the intersecting street for the traffic light to change.

Damage to the Taughinbaugh and Omwake cars was reported extensive, and to the Frutchey car, slight.

Methodists Will Note Mother's Day

The Orrtanna Methodist Church will observe Mother's Day with a special worship service at 8:30 a.m. on Sunday morning. The service will include the following:

The prelude, "My Mother's Favorite Hymn," Mrs. C. A. Sloat; invocation, The Rev. Norman L. Marden; reading, "Letter To Mother," Constance McCleaf; the anthem, "Hymns Our Mothers Love," the choir; reading, "Mothers By Proxy," Mrs. Frank Donaldson; Scripture lesson, Guy Donaldson; hymn sing, hymns chosen by the mothers; sermonette, "A Mother's Heart," The Rev. Norman L. Marden and the offering.

Mother's Day presentations will include: To the oldest mother present, the youngest mother present, the mother who by vote of the congregation has exerted the best influence in the church and each mother who has her whole family present.

A reading, "Mother's Day," Miss Jean Biggs and the hymn, "Happy The Home When God Is There" will be followed by the benediction.

$1,019 SALARY IS WITHHELD

HARRISBURG (AP)—Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith today held up for the third time payment of $1,019 in salary and expenses for a State Agriculture Department sports consultant.

The money is due H. R. (Ike) Gilbert, who was hired by the Agriculture Department as an adviser during construction of a basketball floor at the State Farm Show Arena.

"We don't dispute that he has done the work that the Agriculture Department claims," said Smith, adding:

"However, at the same time he was working for the Agriculture Department he was being paid for a full-time job at Penn State."

Gilbert is on the Pennsylvania State University payroll as a coordinator of student loans.

Smith previously refused to pay Gilbert March 11 and April 11.

William L. Henning, secretary of agriculture, has defended Gilbert as having "done a good job" as consultant.

Jacobs Store At Knoxlyn Closing

After 37 years of operating a general store at Hammers' Hall, Knoxlyn Rd., L. E. Jacobs is going out of business. The store has been a landmark in the community for many years.

The building was built about 70 years ago by S. S. W. "Squire" Hammers who operated the business until he sold it in 1922 to Jacobs. Earlier, Hammers had operated a store in the woolen mill which his parents had operated nearby. He also built Hammers' Hall, a building since converted to a double house. The hall has given the community its name.

Jacobs said that he has no particular plans for the future but he says that he will miss the daily traffic of neighbors coming in to talk and buy. Over the years this has been the pattern of life in the store business. It was interrupted violently only once, one Sunday 22 years ago when fire gutted the store. Following that Jacobs and his wife, who, he says, is his mainstay in the business, rebuilt and modernized the store.

Jacobs, a native of York, came to Adams County as a youngster. He grew up on a farm near Knoxlyn and the community is "home" to him

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs (she was formerly Miss Kathryn Weikert, of Knoxlyn) have two sons, William and Richard. Both helped in the store during their schools years but each has gone into other fields of endeavor. William lives nearby and works for J. R. Weaver in refrigeration and air conditioning. Richard lives in Woodstown, N. J., where he teaches art in school.

NEW YORK (AP)—Sixty-three nations place some 75 million dollars worth of wares on display in the third annual United States World Trade Fair.

The exposition, biggest in the Western Hemisphere, runs through May 19 at the New York Coliseum.

The Soviet Union and Communist China are not represented, but three Iron Curtain countries—Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Poland—are.

GOD'S GREAT GIFT

Friends are ourselves distributed. Baltasar Gracian once wrote that "Friends are a second existence." So they are. We couldn't live happily or with any sort of satisfaction without them. They pace our way through life.

I am amused at the loyalty and friendliness of a dog, out for a walk. His four feet behind his master and friend keep close, and when his master travels too fast, he will keep looking to see if he is in step with the one who loves him.

So long as each of us has at least one friend, we can well say that we have wealth, for without this gift we are sure to be poor indeed. I am inspired by the loyalty and beauty that are evidenced in a kindly and considerate friend. We can't have too many friends, "and those without capitulation."

When the sad hours arrive, or when we are discouraged and feel lost in the world, it is a comforting feeling if we can say that we have one or scores of friends to give us courage and a blessing. How wonderful to feel that a sincere friend is always within reach or call.

Friends are something that money can neither buy nor sell. Our friends are our other selves that we should be proud to show to the entire world. If honestly cultivated, they pay dividends in happiness and inspiration, greater than any investment in this world. But you cannot gain that rare possession "on margin!"

God's great gift can be yours — if you earn it!

Just Folks

PLAYMATES OF LONG AGO

Playmates of the Long Ago,
When the shades of night fall low
Once again to you I come,
Barefoot boy with broken drum;
Once again I seem to stray
Blithely down the paths of May,
Laughing, chatting with you there,
Playing baseball on the square,
Wandering with line and pole
To our favorite fishing hole;
Now, where are you, I would know,
Playmates of the Long Ago?

Back again they come in dreams,
Playmates by the running streams,
Boys I romped with, girls I kissed
Swarm about me from the mist
Of the years that quick have flown,
Still I claim them for my own;
Some are sleeping 'neath the hill,
But in day-dreams living still;
Some perhaps are trouble-worn—
Just as I am—but I scorn
Thoughts that wrong has laid one low,
Playmates of the Long Ago.

TELEVISION IN PRE-SUMMER "SWAN SONG"

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Staff Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Television, in its pre-summer swansong, has discovered the real-life gangster. We just finished with a two parter on the life and times of one Al Capone; on view this week is a half-hour memoir of Dutch Schultz, city type badman, bootlegger and policy czar of the prohibition and depression years.

The Schultz show, on NBC Thursday night May 14 is another of "The Lawless Years" series. It will be followed on the network by the week's one real premiere, a live comedy series called "Too Young To Go Steady" starring Donald Cook and Joan Bennett.

Sunday, as usual, will be devoted to the thinkers during the daytime and the relaxers come dusk. Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) will talk about the forthcoming Geneva conference and domestic politics on the ABC College News Conference.

"Pinafore" On Top

Unfortunately, however, viewers will have to make a choice between a fill-in on the conference and Cyril Ritchard in Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. Pinafore" on NBC's Omnibus.

Evening shows will have the usual lineup. Steve Allen has lined up Anita Ekberg, Sarah Vaughan, Lenny Bruce and others. Ed Sullivan has Hume Cronyn and Jessica Tandy, Dolores Gray, Louis Prima and Keely Smith. Dinah Shore will present Steve Lawrence, Marge and Gower Champion and Bob Cummings.

"Springtime In Paris"

Highlight of the week might well turn out to be the soon-to-be gone voice of Firestone on ABC Monday night. It will be a "Springtime In Paris" show with both Edith Piaf and Genevieve, plus Bill Hayes and Jacques D'Amboise.

Tuesday night Red Skelton and Peter Lorre will do a spoof on horror movies which might just turn out wildly funny. And on NBC Wednesday night Milton Berle will share his camera with Carl Sandburg.

Red Buttons, Diana Lynn and Joan Blondell will star in Playhouse 90 Thursday night on CBS. The play is "A Marriage Of Strangers."

Mayonnaise, the salad dressing, was named for the Bay of Mahon off the coast of Spain. French fishermen in those waters invented the sauce.

ORRTANNA — Mother's Day will be observed during the worship hour Sunday morning at the Mt. Carmel EUB Church at 9 o'clock. The Rev. Alfred K. Gotwalt is pastor.

Recognition will be given Sunday morning during the worship service at the local Methodist Church at 8:30 for the oldest mother, the youngest mother, the mother with the most children present and the mother who has manifested the greatest influence in the church during the year. The pastor is Rev. Norman L. Marden.

The Margaret Donaldson Class and the Young Mothers Class of the Methodist Church here which for the last two years have held their classes and meetings together have agreed to separate and each conduct the classes and meetings separately.

Those of the younger class at a recent meeting elected the following officers to serve through the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Betty Donaldson; vice president, Mrs. Althea March; secretary, Mrs. Hazel McDannel, and treasurer, Mrs. Beulah Newell. The Young Mothers Class has planned a rummage sale to be held at the Farmers Market in Gettysburg May 16. The teacher of the Young Mothers' Class is Mrs. Mary Frances Rebert.

The Margaret Donaldson Class at its recent meeting in the Methodist Church hall elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Ruth Donaldson; vice president, Mrs. Grace Wetzel; secretary, Mrs. Lovell Cease; treasurer, Mrs. Bertha Shulley. Mrs. Mary Tressler is the teacher.

Mrs. Paul Wetzel was hostess on Tuesday evening to the Women's Missionary Society of the Mt. Carmel Church at its monthly Bible study. Mrs. C. G. Crist was leader and offered the opening prayer. The group continued the study of the book of Luke with "Luke and Women" as the topic. After Bible readings and discussions, Mrs. Paul Wetzel offered the closing prayer. Refreshments and a social hour followed.

Mr. and Mrs. William Laughlin, Mt. Holly Springs, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newell.

Mrs. Cora Sharrah had as Sunday guests her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Eisenberger, and Mrs. Grace Colehouse, all of Hanover.

The WSCS of the local Methodist Church served 43 turkey suppers to members of the Annie Danner Club, Gettysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mulhern, Wilmington, Calif., are spending a vacation with Mrs. Mulhern's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mickley.

The Mother-Daughter banquet of the Mt. Carmel EUB Church will be held on Monday evening at the Cashtown Fire Hall with the supper served by the Cashtown Fire Co. Auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crowther returned to Washington, D. C., Wednesday morning after several days stay with Mr. Crowther's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chapman. The Chapmans and their guests spent Tuesday evening in Harrisburg.

YOUNG CORKY KELLY GETS TO POINT ON OWN

By FRED B. WALTERS

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—"I guess I'm proudest of the fact I did it on my own."

The remark was made today by Corky Kelly, the 19-year-old son of a famous father whose heroic death guaranteed the future of his then infant son.

On Wednesday Corky received news that he had earned appointment to West Point by passing stiff competitive examinations.

Assured Of Point

He didn't have to put himself to the test. His father was Capt. Colin P. Kelly Jr., the nation's first air hero of World War II.

Seven days after Capt. Kelly was killed in action President Roosevelt paid an enduring tribute to the gallant pilot in a letter to the President of the United States in 1956.

He asked that President "to consider the merits of an American youth of goodly heritage—Colin P. Kelly III—for appointment as a cadet in the U.S. Military Academy at West Point."

Enrolls In July

Corky was assured of a start in life, and it was a start that he grew up to want,but not quite on such easy terms.

"I guess I could have gotten my appointment without taking the examinations," he said today. "But I didn't want it that way. I wanted to prove that I could do it on my own. If I wasn't qualified, I didn't think it would be right to take a place from somebody else who was."

He'll enroll in the Point's plebe class on July 7.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

MINNESOTA'S LOST FAMILY FOUND IN RENO

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Although their forgiving home town wants them back, a young family that disappeared from Minnesota four months ago plans to stay in Nevada until the father works out his financial problems.

Debt-ridden Earl Zrust, 30, his wife and their five children were found in Reno Thursday by a finance company which repossessed their automobile. The family had left Silver Lake, Minn., without a trace.

On Verge Of Tears

They came to Reno April 21 after living in three California communities — Sacramento, San Luis Obispo and Pismo Beach—where Zrust worked as a brick layer. He is working now on a school project at Loyalton, Calif., 50 miles north of Reno.

He was upset when met by reporters and seemed on the verge of tears, inally he commented:

"I want to go back when I get the bills squared away. I want to be left alone to think. I don't want any help from anybody. I have a good steady job and I'd like to stay here."

In Silver Lake, where Zrust was a general contractor and a former city councilman, Mayor Joe Gehlen said Zrust and his family "will be welcomed with open arms anytime they want to come back."

"Wanted Time"

The family abruptly left Silver Lake, a town of 600 population, 40 miles west of Minneapolis, Dec. 29. Their house, with all its furnishings, was left unlocked. Nothing was said to their relatives.

The family made no attempt to conceal its identity in California or Nevada and Mrs. Zrust expressed surprise they were reported as missing.

"We just wanted time to work things out," she told Police Capt. William Broadhead.

Janitorial Work By Scientists Hit

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—An atomic physicist has called the use of scientists for janitorial services a "ridiculous and flagrant waste" of highly trained personnel.

Jack Paden, a civilian in the 4925th Test Group (Atomic) at Kirtland Air Force Base, was the complainant.

He says that until recently scientists and technicians — making anywhere from $7,510 to $11,835 a year—had been stuck with janitors' chores because of a manpower cut.

He said he complained to Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) and the group now has its janitor back.

PROSPERITY IS U. S. FORECAST

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—An unofficial government forecast of rising prosperity for the next 12 months or longer found general agreement today among the country's top industrialists—but with some reservations.

Members of the Commerce Department's Business Advisory Council, starting a closed-door, weekend session with federal officials, mentioned two big uncertainties in the 1959 business outlook:

First, the possible summer steel strike, which could retard an otherwise steady advance to a record production rate as high as 490 billion dollars annually in the final quarter of this year.

Second, the unforeseeable impact of the entry of major American auto producers into the small car field.

About 100 businessmen, including the heads of many of the country's largest corporations were here for BAC's spring meeting with Secretary of Commerce Strauss and other Washington officials.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

TELL ABOUT DIRE RESULT OF FALLOUT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Scientists tell Congress today what the radioactive fallout results might be if the nuclear powers resume large - scale tests.

The Senate - House Radiation subcommittee has heard this week a wide variety of testimony on the effects of fallout from atomic tests conducted so far.

An Atomic Energy Commission scientist testified Thursday it was "prudent to assume" cancer deaths of children would increase proportionately as fallout increases.

Urge Cut In Level

Dr. Jack Schubert, chemist at the Argonne National Laboratory, said his studies of children's cancer had convinced him the maximum permissible level fixed for fallout radiation should be lowered considerably.

He urged that the level for strontium 90—the most dreaded substance produced in nuclear blasts—be cut in half.

The levels are set by the International Commission on Radiological Protection and the U.S. National Committee on Radiation Protection.

No Reconciliation For Glenn Fords

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eleanor Powell says rumors that she is considering a reconciliation with Glenn Ford are false.

"I know nothing about a reconciliation and my decision to obtain a divorce remains unchanged," she said.

Rumors of a reconciliation cropped up when a temporary alimony hearing scheduled for today was postponed. She said the divorce proceedings will continue as soon as a decision is made on terms of the settlement.

Monday's Gamees

Waynesboro at Gettysburg, 4 p.m.
Hanover at Shippensburg.

Gettysburg High School's usually efficient batting attack was sorely lacking Thursday afternoon as the Warriors were held to three hits in losing at Chambersburg 8-0 in a South Penn League game.

Joe Shellhase, Trojan hurler, gave up a double to Greg Maitland in the first inning, and singles to Bill Shoemaker in the second and Gary Maitland in the third, and thereafter was untouchable as he set down 12 Warriors via the strikeout route and did not issue a pass.

Chambersburg put together a walk to Keefer, triple by Gordon, another walk to Foltz, a wild pitch and an error for three runs in the last of the second inning.

A single by Martin, outfield error and an infield out produced another Trojan run in the third.

Four-Run Frame

Chambersburg sealed the outcome with four more tallies in the fifth.

The runs resulted on four hits, including a triple by Wenger, a pair of walks and an error.

Gary Maitland hurled the first five innings for the Warriors and was charged with the loss. Don Coldsmith pitched the sixth frame.

The Warriors, now 3-5, meet Waynesboro here Monday at 4 p.m. in another league game.

JERRY WALKER GETS THIRD WIN OVER SENATORS

By ED WILKS

You might say Jerry Walker is making a major league career out of beating Washington. The 20-year-old right-hander has a 3-0 record for his three stabs at the big-time with Baltimore — and each of those decisions was against the Senators.

He got the third, his second of the season, Thursday night, blanking the Nats on three hits before Reno Bertoia's eight-inning home run, as the second place Orioles whipped Washington 10-1 and moved within two games of the idle Cleveland Indians.

Only one other American League game was scheduled, and Detroit took that, 3-1 from Boston.

17 Oriole Hits

Walker, a 6-1, 185-pound Oklahoman, polished off the Senators with a five-hitter, walking two and striking out five.

The Thursday night game was packed away before Walker gave up Bertoia's fourth homer. The Orioles, who have won four of their last five, rapped 17 hits off four Washington pitchers, chasing Pete Ramos (3-3) in a five-run second inning triggered by Gus Triandos' solo sixth homer.

Bob Nieman and Al Pilarcik homered as the Birds hit their one-game scoring high of the season. Nieman's shot was a two-run blast and his 100th home run in the majors.

3rd Win Under Dykes

Larry Doby drove home a pair of runs for the Tigers, getting the winner across while grounding out in a two-run sixth against Ike Delock, who had won three in a row. It was the last place Tigers' third success in four games under Manager Jimmy Dykes and right-hander Frank Lary (3-2) put it away for his third in a row.

Lary, allowing eight hits, now has won five straight from the Red Sox since July 30, 1957. Boston's run was unearned in the fifth inning, giving Lary a string of 23 frames in which he has allowed just one earned run.

Scranton Plays Here Saturday

Beaten in their last two starts, the Gettysburg College baseball team will attempt to get back into the win column here Saturday afternoon against the University of Scranton. The game will start at 2:30.

Coach Bob Hulton has run into pitching problems with his aces, Dick Hawkins, a southpaw, and Bucky Walters, right-hander, nursing sore arms. Hulton is undecided upon whom he will send against the Tommies who have one of their best teams in years.

Bermudian at New Oxford.

Bermudian kept up its blistering pace n the Adams County Baseball League by downing Bigerville in a free-hitting game 13-8 at York Springs Thursday afternoon. The winners are 12-1 overall for the season and are certain of at least a tie for first place in the league.

George Williams enjoyed a perfect day at bat for the winners with two singles and a triple. Marlin Tate, winning hurler, poled a bases-empty homerun in the second. Larry Brough rapped a pair of singles and a triple for Biglerville.

Fairfield kept alive its hopes to catch Bermudian by drubbing New Oxford 10-4 on the Colonials' field.

The invaders scored three runs in each of the first three innings to breeze in handily as Dick Reese limited New Oxford to five hits. Joe McCauslin went four for four for the winners with three singles and a triple.

Hershey Players Get $2,000 Each

NEW YORK (AP) — The Hershey Bears, winners of the American Hockey League's Calder Cup, and the Buffalo Bisons, have received $23,965 apiece from the most lucrative playoff pool in many years. Each player will get about $2,000.

Officials anncunced Wednesday that the playoff pool amounted to $68,473. It is based on 50 per cent of the net gate receipts from the 12 games necessary to decide the three playoffs.

The $68,473 was divided among Hershey, Buffalo, the Cleveland Barons and Rochester Americans.

Hershey and Buffalo received 35 per cent of the total. Buffalo was the regular season winner.

Cleveland received $10,955 and Rochester $9,586. Both were eliminated in the semifinals.

JACOBS LEADS AT TWIN HILLS

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A lush green golf course that on the surface appeared to be a push-over had most of the top ranking golfers talking to themselves today as the $25,000 Oklahoma City Open Tournament plunged into the all-important second round.

On top of the heap was young Tommy Jacobs of Whittier, Calif., who got the maximum mileage out of his game for an opening 66 which is six under par on the 6,640-yard par 72 Twin Hills Country Club course.

Strictly a test of accuracy, Twin Hills turned back the mass assault on par which usually develops on the Professional Golfers Assn. tour. Of the 148 players who teed off in the first round only 23 broke par.

Most of the pros agreed this is a "give and take" course. There are holes on which strokes can be picked up at random and then there are holes where strokes can be lost with reckless abandon.

Peter Mazur of Buffalo, N. Y., was Jacobs' chief competitor after carding a 67 on the strength of 6 birdies.

Turnaway Crowd Makes "Campy's Night" Great

By BOB MYERS
AP Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Campy's Night" was a tremendous, record breaking event.

A turnaway crowd of 93,103 — paid — packed Memorial Coliseum to benefit Roy Campanella, the Los Angeles Dodgers' paralysis-stricken star, and to watch the Dodgers play the New York Yankees Thursday night.

It was just an exhibition, won by the world champions 6-2.

New Baseball Mark

But the roaring crowd surpassed baseball's previous all-time attendance high. That was the 86,288 who saw the fifth game of the 1958 World Series in Cleveland between the Indians and the old Boston Braves.

It was a night of emotion, of sentiment, good action for an exhibition.

Thirty - seven - year - old Campy drew a thunderous, standing ovation when he was wheeled by the Dodgers' ex-captain, Pee Wee Reese, onto the floodlit green diamond.

Neatly dressed in a brown business suit, his head topped with a blue Dodger cap, Campy said, via a loudspeaker to the hushed crowd:

"Thank you, ladies and gentlemen. I want to thank each and every one from the bottom of my heart.

"This is something I'll never forget.

"I thank God that I am here living to see it. Thanks a million."

To Get $60,000

Once again the stadium rocked with applause as Pee Wee wheeled Roy back to his place behind a screen near the Dodger dugout.

Unofficially, it was the consensus that Campanella, besieged with medical bills since his auto smashup 18 months ago, would get around $60,000.

Dodger Vice President E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi said that after 10 per cent rental for the Coliseum was taken from the gross, the two clubs divided the receipts 50-50. The Dodgers reportedly gave their entire share to Campanella. The Yankees will distribute their share to various charities, primarily their sandlot program.

Someone Asked Casey A Question; He Answered

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Casey Stengel, one of the nation's foremost exponents of obscure rhetoric, was approached innocently by a man with a question.

"Casey," the man said, "you've seen the layout here at the Coliseum. What do you think of it?"

The questioner was wise enough to bring along a tape recorder. And here is what Casey said:

"Well, I seen the field. I think it's like every baseball club in the United States. Not saying they'd like to play here. Course, if I was going to be a ballplayer (or) I wanted to own a club I would like a nice new field where it would be more convenient for the players to play more uniform games.

"Makes Always Pays Off"

"Therefore, I think that's what they're going to have in Los Angeles. . . . Anything up to date in Los Angeles, or in, you might say, California, makes always pays off."

Casey, cornered in the dugout before his Yankees met the Dodgers in an exhibition Thursday night, was asked specifically about the leftfield screen. All newcomers are asked about it.

"I'm not concerned about the screen," Casey said. "I can't hit any more. I don't have my glove and I don't have my bat."

Would the Yankees enjoy themselves here?

"Depend On Lineup"

"Well, I don't know — no, it would depend on your lineup. Sometime you've got to play here and you've got to have a lineup of men who can hit that left field, and that's the trouble when you come to a new ballpark—if you've got a ball team that can hit three fields why do you want to have to have men who can only hit one field?

"Now this is a great place for a pull hitter, if he's a right-handed hitter, or if he's a left-handed hitter and he's a long-distance hitter to left field. That's the payoff for you to pick up those kind of men, but why would you fire a man who would be good in other parks just because he couldn't hit to left field?"

Next question.

MOUNTAINEER NINE ROUTS W. MD. 20-12

Pounding out a total of 24 hits, Mt. St. Mary's won its third baseball game of the season by trouncing Western Maryland in a free-scorning affair Thursday at Westminster 20-12.

Fielding was particularly weak by both teams to contribute to the scorning as the Terrors were charged with seven miscues and the Mount with four.

Luke Fannon led the Mountaineers' attack with five hits, a homerun, two doubles and a pair of singles. Bob Segrell collected four hits and each batted in a trio of runs.

Al Stewart started on the Mound for Western Maryland and was knocked out after three innings. He switched to centerfield and wound up with six hits in as many times at bat, including two doubles.

Today Mt. St. Mary's (3-9) entertains Baltimore in another Mason-Dixon Conference game at Emmitsburg to conclude its season.

SHIPPENSBURG TEACHERS TOP MSM TRACKMEN

Mt. St. Mary's was no match for the undefeated Shippensburg State Teachers College track team Thursday as the Mountaineers bowed to the teachers 94⅔ to 27⅓ at Shippensburg.

The victory was the 28th straight for Shippensburg and marked the conclusion of its fifth straight unbeaten season in dual meets.

In dual competition this season Mt. St. Mary's turned in a record of four wins and two losses.

GOOD-WILL AMBASSADOR

CHICAGO (AP) — Two ambassadors of good will from Chicago will visit Latin America to stir interest in the third Pan-American Games Aug. 27 to Sept. 7.

Ralph Metcalfe and Fred Dickens, members of the Chicago Pan-American Games Organizing Committee, will tour separate South American areas beginning May 20.

The sports ambassadors will meet with Pan-American Games representatives to discuss plans and check needs of Latin America athletes while participating in the games.

ORTEGA IS FAVORED

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Gaspar Ortega is favored to beat Rudy Stitch tonight but the odds don't mean much to the revenge-minded Stitch who thought he won their first bout.

Ortega took a split decision by a single point after a bloody battle in New York Feb. 6 but suffered an eye cut that has kept him on the sidelines since.

Tonight's 10-round bout between the scrappy welterweights will be telecast and broadcast nationally (NBC, 9 p.m. EST).

WHIFFS 15 TO WIN FIRST IN EASTERN LOOP

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Allentown and Binghamton have exchanged roles in the Eastern League.

Last year at this time Allentown was at the bottom of the standings in the throes of a losing streak. Binghamton, winning game after game, was way out in first place.

Today the Red Sox, with a 9-5 record, are in first place by 18 percentage points. The Triplets, with an exactly opposite won-lost record, are seventh in the eight-team league.

Allentown swept a four - game series against Binghamton Thursday night with a 4-3 victory. Zeke King slammed his second homer of the game and his sixth of the season to provide the winning margin in the tenth inning. Al Antinelli went all the way for his fourth victory.

Springfield Downed

Springfield, meanwhile, went down to a 9-0 defeat at the hands of the Reading Indians. It was the first time in the young season the Giants were shut out. They were in first place until Thursday night.

Julius Grant hurled a seven-hitter, and the Indians backed him up with two big innings at the plate. In the fifth, Ken Kraynak hit a three - run homer which capped a five - run inning. Then Reading jumped on relief hurler Corky Johnson for three more runs in the sixth. Mike Delahoz' bases-loaded single with two out cleared the bases.

Gets 15 Strikeouts

Art Mehaffey made an auspicious debut with the Williamsport Grays, striking out 15 Lancaster batters in a 6-1 victory. Mehaffey's fifth inning homer was the spark which ignited a five-run Williamsport rally. Mehaffey, a slim, 21-year-old righthander, combined a whistling fast ball and a sharp curve to hold the Red Roses to four hits.

York took the night's scoring honors by clobbering the flu-ridden Albany Senators 15-1 in a sweep of their four-game series. Four Albany errors figured in the York scoring. Fred Walker went the distance for his first win of the season and allowed only five hits.

Tonight's Games

Albany at Binghamton
Springfield at Williamsport
York at Allentown
Reading at Lancaster.

BOLTS TAKE NIGHT GAME

Littlestown High upper its overall season record to 7-3 by defeating Taneytown 9-7 in a baseball game played under the lights at Littlestown Thursday evening.

Sparking the Thunderbolts' 11-hit attack were Dave Crouse and Ronnie Crouse who smacked homeruns in the third and sixth innings, respectively.

Dickk Bankert pitched the first six innings for Littlestown to gain credit for the victory. Gary Worley hurled for the final frame. Taneytown was held to six hits.

Today Delone plays at Littlestown.

Score by innings:

Taneytown	202	003	0—7
Littlestown	112	032	x—9

Batteries: Taneytown, Eyler and Baumgardner; Littlestown, R. Bankert, Worley (7) and Markle, Benner (5).

NINTH INNING HOMER SINKS DELONE 2-1

A homerun by Jim Heilman in the top of the final inning with a runner aboard gave Hanover a thrilling 2-1 victory over the Delone baseball team Thursday afternoon on the loser's field.

Delone had led 1-0 from the fourth inning when it scored on Johnny Gastley's' single, his steal of second base, and a single by Butch Miller, the losing hurler.

Dick Hamme, who relieved George Stetter in the third inning for Hanover and was credited with the victory, got a bloop single to left field prior to Heilman's circuit blast to left center. Heilman just made it to the plate and scored via a slide to beat the throw-in.

Delone, now 3-4, will attempt to snap a three-game losing streak at Littlestown this afternoon.

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — John Dombach's total of 641 paced the Certified Rug Cleaners team of Lancaster to fifth place Thursday night in the Class A team event of the Pennsylvania State Bowling Tournament.

It was the only change in the standings. The team rolled an actual total of 2,920. Adding the team handicap of 252, Certified's total was 3,172. Dombach's high game was 223.

For the first time in the history of the South Penn Conference track meet, two Adams County schools will be represented in the 25th annual meet which will be held on the Gettysburg College athletic field Saturday afternoon starting at 1 o'clock.

George Forney's Gettysburg High Warriors and Don Sterner's Biglerville Canners will take part along with seven other conference members. Biglerville becomes a full-fledged conference mmber next year.

According to John Mountz, Carlisle High School, director for the meet, there have been a total of 192 boys entered from the nine schools which will make it one of the biggest meets in conference history.

They are as follows: Biglerville (18), Carlisle (32), Chambersburg (40), Hanover (18), Gettysburg (16), Middletown (11), Shippensburg (22), Hershey (16), and Waynesboro (19).

Trojans Defend Title

Chambersburg High has won the team title for the past two years but is expected to be given stiff opposition particularly from new-comer Biglerville which has cleaned up in its meets to date.

Scoring will be on a 5-4-3-2-1 basis. A team trophy will be awarded. Individual awards will include gold medals for first place; silver medals for second place; bronze medals for third place; yellow ribbons for fourth place, and green ribbons for fifth place. In the event of ties duplicate awards will be made.

Coaches George Forney and James Feather have made the following entries from Gettysburg High School:

GHS Entries

Tommy Crist, 100, 220, 880 relay; Joel Riddlemoser, 880 relay, 100; George Hayberger, broad jump, mile relay; Jason Guden, 120 high hurdles, 180 low hurdles, 880 relay; Barry Fair, 120 high hurdles, 180 low hurdles, mile relay; Dick Scott, shot-put, discus; Mike Small, 440, high jump, mile relay.

Time Table

The time table for events will be the same as in the past and will be as follows:

1:00—120 high hurdle trials, shot-put, poole vault; 1:10—100 yard trials; 1:20—mile; 1:30—discus; 1:45—120 high hurdle finals, high jump.

2:00—100 yard finals; 2:15—880 relay; 2:30—440 dash; 2:45—180 low hurdle trials, broad jump, javelin.

3:00—220 yard trials; 3:15—880 run; 3:30—18 high hurdle finals; 3:45—220 dash finals.

4:00—mile run.

Admission for adults will be 50c and for students 30c.

Mother of the ~~YEAR~~ DAY

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

She won't be guest of honor at any Mother's Day banquet. But who cares?

Her glory has always been greater than mere national recognition.

She wears her orchid in her heart.

She doesn't want speeches. But she'll find inspiration, as always, in the pastor's sermon.

And sitting there in church, with her grown up boys and girls, she'll recall the days when first they toddled along to Church School.

And she'll thank God!

Yes! She'll thank Him that it doesn't take a Mother's Day to bring her family to God's House!

21 GIRL SCOUTS RECEIVE BARS AT COURT OF HONOR EVENTS

The annual Court of Awards of the Girl Scouts of the community was held Wednesday evening in the Littlestown High School auditorium, when 11 girls of Troop 34 received their graduation certificates; 12 members of Troop 16 and nine members of Troop 28 received their curved bar award, the highest award of Girl Scouting. Troop 34 members had previously received this award as did five other members of Troop 16. Approximately 250 Scouts, leaders, and parents and friends of Scouting attended.

The program, with Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, Neighborhood Chairman, in charge, opened with the flag ceremony, with someone from each troop participating. Troop 51 presented a skit "Portraits of Living Greeting Cards Through the Year." The girls were in appropriate costume and there was recorded background music for each month.

Leaders of the troop are Mrs. L. Robert Snyder, Mrs. Chester S. Byers and Mrs. Clarence J. Krichten Jr. Troop committee members are Mrs. William Seibert, Mrs. Kenneth Benner, Mrs. Norman J. Hahn, Mrs. Donald J. Staub and Mrs. William Mehring. Each member of the troop received her troop crest, a mountain laurel recently chosen by the troop, homemaker dabbler and second class badges and one-year pins. The troop members are Dianne Byers, Linda Blocher, Ruth Benner, Ellen Greene, Jean Yealy, Thurla Hahn, Peggy Bair, Vickie Baker, Beverly Brown, Linda Bittle, Uanette Hood, Karen Krichten, Sally Mehring, Mary Lou Miller, Susan Oaster, Gaynelle Ritter, Susan Seibert, Linda Staub, Nancy Snyder, Barbara Miller, Peggy Snyder, Linda Smith, Linda Sentz and Sandra Study.

Troop 45 entertained with songs "Peace of the River"; a round "Why Shouldn't My Goose?" and an original song with the Girl Scout pledge set to music "Upon My Honor." Mrs. Edwin W. Elder Jr., one of the leaders, was the accompanist.

Get 5-Year Pins

Mrs. John Kump and Mrs. John Flickinger are the other leaders of Troop 45 and the troop committee includes Mrs. Paul E. Altoff, Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, Mrs. Howard Myers, Mrs. Karl P. Bankert, Mrs. John R. Rudisill and Mrs. William R. Keefer.

All Troop 45 members received their homemaker, games and rambler badges and in addition the following received their five-year pins: Peggy Altoff, Sally Bankert, Jane Basehoar, Carol Flickinger, Jacie Elder, Jean Hornberger, Linda Keefer, Judy Knight, Judy Koontz, Carolyn Kump, Barbara Muller, Peggy Myers, Barbara Pittenturf, Martha Ritter, Linda Sentz, Marianne Rudisill, and these girls received membership stars in addition to their three badges, Roberta Cookson, Carolyn Davis, Linda Hess, La Donna Hartsock, Beverly Morehead, Linda Smith and Barbara Smith. Troop aide Jackie Morelock announced the awards and the leaders presented them.

Troop 11 presented a skit entitled "People Are Persons" patterned after the Edward R. Murrow television show. Mrs. Clark Shanefelter is leader of this troop. Mrs. Preston Myers, committee member, presented the awards. The following troop members received their campcraft, folk dancer, rambler badges, their troop crest and their membership star: Patricia Myers, Carole Hollinger, Nancy Yingling, Ellen Jane Baumgardner, Joan Barton, Janice Evans, Jill Weikert, Sally Cookson, Jo Ann Beamer and Carol Long; Kay Morehead received all but the campcraft badge and Elaine Bridinger received the folk dancer and rambler badges and the troop crest.

Troop 43 Awards

Troop 43 presented a skit "Pennsylvania Dutch Family Getting Their Picture Taken" with Ellen Miller as the photographer and with all other troop members in costume. Mrs. Kenneth K. Kroh and Mrs. Robert H. Miller are troop leaders and Mrs. G. Richard Knipple, Mrs. Irvin Miller and Mrs. John Gentzler comprise the troop committee.

Troop members and the awards they earned, which were announced by Brenda Hollinger, troop aide, are Connie Bair, bird, housekeeper, musician, reptile, My Troop badge and five-year pin; Judy Brown, cat and dog, child care, garden flower and insect badges; Carole Ann Fox, cat and dog, child care and five-year pin; Jean Gentzler, cook, homemaking, My Troop and five-year pin; Linda Harner, hospitality, cook, My Troop and five-year pin; Linda Knipple, housekeeper, junior life saving, personal health, games, My Troop and five-year pin; Sharon Long, five-year pin; Ellen Miller, cat and dog, garden flower, My Troop and five-year pin; Marilyn Miller, cyclist, child care, My Troop and five-year pin; Betty Lou Sell, child care, games, cat and dog, My Troop and five-year pin; Kathy Weikert, home gardener five-year pin; Phyllis Wallick, home gardener, My Troop and five-year pin; Ann Kroh, cyclist, junior life saving, personal health, games, My Troop and five-year pin.

Dances By Troop 12

"Little Brown Jug" and "Log Cabin in the Lane" were Troop 12's two American Folk dances as part of their requirements to earn the folk dancer badge. Mary Rita Redding is leader of this troop and was recognized by the Adams County Council's executive secretary later in the evening for her 15 years work with Girl Scouts. Troop committee members are Mrs. J. Harold Redding, Miss Anna C. Weaver and Miss Naomi Sanders. All of the troop members received their troop crest and one-year attendance stars; members and the awards they received in additional from their leader are: Sally Busbey, needlecraft; Nancy Harner, insect and needlecraft; Joyce Hymiller, needlecraft; Anna Louise Krichten, insect, needlecraft and identification strip; Sandra Kuhns, world friendship pin and identification strip; Loretta O'Donnell, world friendship pin, identification strip and needlecraft; Alice Redding, camp craft and identification stripe; Faith Redding, insect and needlecraft badges; Camilla Sentz, world friendship pin and identification strip; Hope Sentz, needlecraft badge and identification strip; Suzanne Weaver, needlecraft badge.

Curved Bars For 12

Troop 16 presented three songs "When Loves Come Down," "Long Long Trail," and "I Want Two Wings," with member Donna Rabenstine as accompanist. Girls Reminisce

Troop 34 members held a reminiscing panel session. Six of these girls have been in Scouts together for eleven years, since they joined Brownies in second grade. They are Joyce Breighner, Betty Wallick, Janet Sell, Julie Ann Kammerer, Mary Gail Gouker and Janice Breighner. They received camping experiences and Janet Sell showed items which she swapped at the Senior Roundup she attended in Michigan in 1956. Mrs. Carroll E. Arter and Mrs. Robert Gouker are troop leaders. Mrs. David S. Kammerer Jr. and Mrs. Dennis S. Wallick are troop committee members. The leaders presented each troop member with her graduation certificate and also with a farewell gift. The girls in turn gave each of the leaders a remembrance. Members of the troop in addition to the six mentioned are Patricia Yingling, Roberta Graham, Judy Long, Susan Strevig and Judy Noss. The latter has already registered as an assistant leader. Mrs. Arter announced that the flag designed by Julie Ann Kammerer was chosen as the Adams County Council group's roundup flag for this year.

To Parade May 29

Mrs. Ross Schwartz, president of the Adams County Girl Scout Council, was in attendance and spoke briefly, emphasizing the need for trained leadership to advance the cause of Girl Scouting in the community. Mrs. Hardy Nichols, executive secretary of the council, also spoke of Day Camp this summer and other activities at Camp Happy Valley. Littlestown's dates for Day Camp are July 13 to 17 and there will be a staff meeting at the home of neighborhood chairman, Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, Glenwyn Drive, on May 25.

Mrs. Ritter announced that all Girl Scouts, excluding those who play in the band, are asked to report in uniform at 6:15 p.m. on Friday, May 29, at the high school, to participate in the annual Memorial Day parade. Brownies may not march. Mrs. Ritter also announced that there will be a rummage sale on Friday, May 22, in the vacant building formerly housing Beford's Shoe Store, and anyone desiring to donate items for the sale may take them to the building on May 21 or give to one of the leaders or Mrs. Ritter. This sale is being sponsored to make up the deficit in the council's contribution quota from the community.

Junior Women To Honor Mothers

The Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown will observe Mother's Night with a dinner program for members and their guests next Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. in Redeemer's United Church of Christ social hall. The guest speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Nevin E. Smith, pastor of Emmanuel United Church of Christ, Hanover.

The meal will be served by Redeemer's Aid Society. Arrangements are in charge of the club finance committee, composed of Mrs. Bernard G. Kebil, chairman, Mrs. William R. Keefer, Mrs. Paul F. Boller Jr., Mrs. Jay R. Crouse, Mrs. Richard E. Barnes, Mrs. R. Kenneth Boyd, Mrs. Edward L. Warner, Mrs. Allen Shanebrook and Mrs. Robert G. Breighner.

Pfc. Ned A. Little, U. S. Marine Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Little, 113 E. King St., Littlestown, competed in the 1959 Eastern Division Rifle and Pistol Matches at Camp Lejeune, N. C., this week. Before enlisting in May, 1958, he graduated from Littlestown Junior-Senior High School.

SCOUTS PLAN PAPER DRIVE

Boy Scout Troop 84 will conduct a drive for paper, rags and scrap in Littlestown and vicinity on Saturday, according to plans made at the weekly meeting of the troop on Wednesday evening in the headquarters on M St. The drive will begin at 8 a.m. tomorrow and continue all day, with the Scouts meeting at the John N. Sell property to start the collection. For the convenience of the boys, it is requested that donations for the collection be ready when they call at the homes.

A board of review was conducted at the meeting in preparation for the Court of Honor to be held in conjunction with the charter presentation program on Sunday, May 17. The charters will be presented to Cub Pack 84, Boy Scout Troop 84 and Explorer Post 84 at the program to begin at 2 p.m. on Memorial Field. In case of rain, the affair will be held in the general purpose room of Rolling Acres Elementary School. The boys will meet at 1:30 p.m. at the Scout headquarters and from there will march, in uniform, to the field. Parents, friends and all those interested in Scouting are urged to attend.

The Den of Cub Scouts led by Mrs. Donald C. Feeser, Prince St., completed work on flowers made for their mothers as Mother's Day gifts at their meeting this week. The boys are now making designs for shields at their weekly meetings at the home of the den mother.

Den 7 of Cubs made potted plant gifts for their mothers as a Mother's Day remembrance at their meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of den mother, Mrs. Francis Prato, Prince St.

The boys of Den 5 made Mother's Day corsages for their mothers at the meeting on Thursday evening at the home of their den mother, Mrs. Richard B. Hartlaub, near town. The corsages were pink paper carnations with pink ribbon.

RESTAURANT CASE BEFORE HIGH COURT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — What makes a restaurant — its name, architectural design, or the food it serves?

The justices of the State Supreme Court were asked Wednesday to restrain two Snyder County eating places from using names and signs that allegedly resembled Dutch Pantry Inc., a restaurant doing business in Hummelswharf Borough, Monroe Township.

The Snyder County Common Pleas Court last year refused to enjoin Dutch Kitchen Restaurant and Miracle Dutch Treat, both in Monroe Township, from using the word Dutch in their names.

"Confuse Clients"

Leonard R. Apfelbaum, Sunbury attorney, representing Dutch Pantry, said customers can confuse his client's restaurant with the other two establishments—both independently operated—because of similarities in their names and architecture.

Miracle Dutch Treat featured a windmill, as did Dutch Pantry, and displayed a sign reading "Dutch Kitchen Cookin' ".

The Dutch Kitchen building, Apfelbaum said, "is deceptively similar," and like Dutch Pantry, uses a figure of a Dutch girl for display.

Sunbury lawyer Sidney Apfelbaum, for Miracle Dutch Treat, and Michael Kivko, for Dutch Kitchen, argued that there was no similarity since the term Dutch is popular in Pennsylvania and could not be trademarked.

The court took the case under advisement.

DRIVE ON DOGS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Agriculture Department will open a drive to reduce the number of unlicensed dogs in Cambria, Erie and Dauphin counties on Monday as part of a statewide campaign.

The campaign will shift to Butler, Jefferson, Bradford and Lehigh counties May 28.

Tennis was purely an amateur sport until 1926.

Third Sentenced To Gas Chamber

VENTURA, Calif. (AP) — Luis Moya, the third member of a trio condemned to death for the murder of nurse Olga Duncan, was formally sentenced to the gas chamber Thursday.

Moya, 22, admitted that he and Augustine Baldonado, 26, kidnaped and strangled Olga after being promised $6,000 by her mother-in - law, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan. Sentences of the three will be appealed to the State Supreme Court.

FOUR INDICTED FOR ASSAULT ON NEGRO CO-ED

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A grand jury of 18 white men indicted four white youths Wednesday for assaulting a slender Negro co-ed.

The jurors heard witnesses — including the 19-year-old victim — for nearly seven hours before filing into a hushed courtroom and handing their presentment to Circuit Judge W. May Walker.

Only once before in Florida history has such a case drawn such wide attention. That was in 1949 when four Negroes were accused of assaulting a 17-year-old married white girl.

The courtroom gallery was almost filled with Negroes Wednesday — many of whom had kept their segregated seats all day — but there was no demonstration when Walker announced the indictments had been returned. White spectators also were silent.

The four will be arraigned Friday and a trial date set. They are Patrick G. Scarborough, 20, Air Force man on leave from an Alaska base; Willion T. Collinsworth, 24, married telephone lineman; David Ervin Beagles, 18, a high school student; and Ollie Stoutamire, 16, a distant relative of Police Chief Frank Stoutamire of Tallahassee.

They have confessed finding the victim, her escort and another Negro couple parked early Saturday morning after a college dance, taking her to a lonely spot at gunpoint and assaulting her by turns.

Recall 1949 Case

The crime can bring the death penalty but never in Florida history has a white man gone to the electric chair for assaulting a Negro. Several Negroes have died for raping white women.

None of the four Negroes accused in the 1949 case was executed although one was killed by a posse and a second was shot to death by a sheriff who said he tried to escape en route to his trial.

A third was sentenced to life imprisonment after a jury recommended mercy because he was only 17. The fourth, Walter Lee Irvin, was convicted twice and sentenced to death but his sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

Word that the four white men were indicted was received calmly by students at Florida A. and M. University where the victim is enrolled. Earlier the students had boycotted classes and held mass rallies to protest the attack.

ASHEVILLE, N. C. (AP) — J. Shiers Jones of Birmingham, Ala., was elected president of the Rail Steel Bar Assn. Wednesday. Election of officers was the final business of a three-day meeting.

New directors include H. G. Daly of Williamsport, Pa.

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest George, York Springs, was celebrated Sunday at a family dinner in the Penn Harris Hotel, Harrisburg. The couple was married May 2, 1909, in Cleveland, Ohio, and lived in Akron, Ohio, before moving to this area 15 years ago. They now live in retirement on a 70-acre farm.

The couple have seven children living: Mrs. Dorothy Keefer, Akron; Ernest George Jr., Marshallville, Ohio; Mrs. Irene Cronk, Massachusetts; Ralph George, Barberton, Ohio; Mrs. Ethel Troutman, New Jersey; Mrs. Marjorie Clawson, San Francisco, Calif.; Glenn George, New Jersey, and 18 grandchildren. Hurl Charges At Steel Industry

NEW YORK (AP) — The Steelworkers Union has charged the steel industry with violating the antitrust laws and labor relations laws and asked the government to investigate.

Arthur J. Goldberg, the union's general counsel, said law violations are involved in industry disclosures of plans it may invoke to deal with a possible July 1 industry strike.

Goldberg outlined his charges in letters to Atty. Gen. William Rogers and to Jerome D. Fenton, general counsel of the National Labor Relations Board.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

FCC ASKED TO CHANGE RULE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department asked the Federal Communications Commission Thursday to reverse its decision that all political candidates must be given equal time on radio and television news programs.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers announced the action at the White House after a conference with President Eisenhower. This was a plain implication that the full weight of the administration was behind the move.

The FCC decision was made in the case of Lar Daly, who recently was an unsuccessful candidate for mayor of Chicago.

Daly Protested

Daly protested that radio and TV stations were giving his opponents more time on news programs, and appealed for a ruling that he get equal time.

The FCC ordered that he be given equal access to broadcasting time.

Until the Daly incident, there had been no idea in the broadcasting industry that the section could be applied to news programs. The general interpretation of the meaning of the section was that if broadcasting time was sold to one political candidate, it must be made available on the same terms to other candidates; if given to one, given to all.

Last March 18, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty reported that Eisenhower thought the FCC decision in the Daly case was ridiculous.

The Suez Canal was completed in 1869.

SAYS USW WILL WIN; TO STRIKE IF NECESSARY

NEW YORK (AP) — John F. Murray, Pittsburgh Steelworkers Union fficial, said Thursday the union "is eventualy going to win its demands even if we have to strike to do it."

Murray, director of the union's District 16, and a cousin of the union's late President Philip Murray, said the public and industry are underestimating the union's solidarity and determination to gain a sizeable wage boost and other concessions.

Murray's comments were made off-the-cuff to reporters as he headed a union bargaining team back into talks with Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp.

Too Many Contracts

The J & L talks had broken up Wednesday on their opening day over a union demand that J & L put all its plants and subsidiaries under common contract terms.

Murray said there are too many varying J & L contracts now. J & L Industrial Relations Vice President George flacus said the company seeks to continue separate contracts to fit local situations.

Resume Talks

The J & L talks resumed this morning with this problem unsolved and put aside for further discussion later.

Murray emphasized that the union is determined to win its demands even if it takes a strike to do it.

Both the industry and union have been trying to play down the possibility of a strike in talking with reporters during the preliminary steel bargaining.

As the negotiations entered their their third day, they grew more tense — primarily because of Wednesday's disclosure the industry is already mapping strategy to deal with a possible July 1 industry walkout.

The Pilgrims landed at Provincetown Harbor, Mass., in November, 1620; then moved on to Plymouth after a few weeks.

O'Donnell Gets New Post, Promotion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Assignment of Lt. Gen. Emmett O'Donnell to be commander in chief of the Pacific air forces was announced Thursday by the White House.

President Eisenhower also nominated O'Donnell—now Air Force deputy chief of staff for personnel—for promotion to the rank of full general. The nomination is subject to Senate confirmation.

In his new job, O'Donnell succeeds Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, who was tapped by Eisenhower to take over July 1 as commander in chief of the North American Air Defense Command. O'Donnell will have his headquarters in Hawaii.

MYRON TAYLOR, VATICAN ENVOY PASSES AWAY

NEW YOR K(AP) — Myron C. Taylor, 85, former chairman of the board of U.S. Steel Corp. and former presidential representative to the Vatican, died Wednesday at his home.

Taylor retired from U.S. Steel at the age of 64. In 1927, as chairman of the firm's finance committee, Taylor was credited with wiping out the company's 340-million-dollar funded debt by issuing common stock.

In 1939 he was appointed by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt as his personal envoy to the Vatican and the late Pope Pius XII. He also acted as former President Harry S. Truman's personal representative to Pope Pius.

Was Given Medal

Taylor received the Medal of Merit from President Truman in 1948 for his 10-year service in the Vatican post.

Taylor's wife, the former Anabel Stuart Mack, died earlier this year.

Funeral service's will be held from his home on Saturday, and he will be buried at Locust Valley on Long Island.

Gas ranges awarded the Gold Star have 28 or more wonderful features, many of which are listed below.

All you have to do to enter the sweepstakes is:

1. Check three of the following features that are most important to you.
2. Fill in your name and address, and drop in the box at your favorite gas range Gold Star Sweepstakes dealer's store.

☐ Back panels have light, clock, timer, extra outlet.
☐ All ovens have interior light, while some have "oven-ready" signal light as well.
☐ All top burners, ovens, and broilers light automatically—no matches.
☐ All ranges have at least one giant or "speed" burner.
☐ All top burners have high and low settings, hold any temperature you set in-between.
☐ All ranges with two ovens have one oven with automatic clock control and meat thermometer that shuts oven off automatically. Both are equipped with thermostats.
☐ Every range over 37 inches wide has either:
• a waist-high broiler, or
• a built-in griddle with thermostatic control, or
• two ovens, one with clock control, and meat thermometer that shuts oven off automatically.
☐ Broiler broils efficiently with door shut—without smoking.
☐ Broilers, drawers, and racks are non-tilt, roll easily on smooth bearings and have safe, effective stops.
☐ Top burners have a "keep warm" and a "simmer" setting and will relight automatically at "simmer."
☐ All ovens are extra-insulated to keep exterior cool and oven doors have resilient edging, self-sealing to guard against loss of heat.
☐ All ranges are designed to fit flush to walls.
☐ All materials used are rust-resistant, non-corrosive.

NO SIGNS NOW OF ALGERIAN PEACE TERMS

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

CONSTANTINE, Algeria (AP)—There is no sign in this tense, gerian peace that French Presi- heavily patrolled city of the Al- dent De Gaulle says is in sight.

Mobs of French and Algerian youths clashed in Constantine's streets on two days this week, and more trouble is feared. Young French rioters have demanded the firing squad for De Gaulle, who was their hero a year ago.

The hope for peace seems equally dim when one talks with Algerian rebel leaders in neighboring Tunisia, the rebels' chief training and supply base.

Vow To Fight On

The Algerians vow to continue their 4½-year war for independence from France. Their organization appears to be getting stronger.

Recent talks with leaders of the Nationalists indicate they have abandoned hope that Western pressure will force France to make a peace suitable to the rebels. They appear ready to take arms and assistance from the Communist bloc.

Will Be Pacified

Premier Fernat Abbas and Information Minister Mohammad Yazid of the Cairo-based Algerian government hint that they would back down from demands for full independence and be content with internal autonomy. But the French minority in Algeria probably would rise up at even that concession.

De Gaulle in a speech at Bourges, France, Thursday declared:

"Without setting a date, without making any promises and without presumptuousness, I say here with full knowledge of the facts, that the day is in sight when Algeria will be pacified."

He did not amplify this.

AT CONVENTION

Three members of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and Vicinity attended sessions of the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Club held in Pittsburgh early in the week. They were Mrs. Robert J. Eckenrode, president; Mrs. Robert H. Miller, first vice president, and Mrs. Marie Hollinger.

'MISS PENNA.' WEEK IN JUNE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The week of June 15-20 has been proclaimed as Miss Pennsylvania Week by Gov. Lawrence in honor of the annual pageant in West Chester to select Miss Pennsylvania.

The governor signed the proclamation and handed it to Rosalie Samley, Miss Pennsylvania of 1958, in a brief ceremony Thursday.

Miss Samley appeared with a delegation from the West Chester Chamber of Commerce and the West Chester Exchange Club, sponsors of the three-day event.

The state pageant winner will compete for national beauty honors in the Miss America pageant in September at Atlantic City, N. J.

Lawrence also proclaimed May as Cerebral Palsy Month and urged Pennsylvanians to take advantage of the educational program of United Cerebral Palsy.

EX-LEGISLATOR DIES

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Atty. Charles F. Bidelspacher, a former member of the State Legislature, died Thursday in Williamsport Hospital. He was 83.

Bidelspacher was first elected to the State House of Representatives from Lycoming County in 1916 and was re-elected to seven consecutive terms.

SPORTSMEN TO MEET

Dale W. Starry and Lloyd Bortner comprise the social committee for the May meeting of the Littlestown Fish and Game Association, Inc., next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Fish and Game Clubhouse, near town.

IT PAYS TO

Before You Travel, See H. Ridinger

Before you travel this summer, Harry D. Ridinger, 10 Carlisle St., suggests that you drop in at his office or give him a telephone call about the Aetna Accident Ticket that will pay for the loss of life, limb or hand or foot as a result of accidental bodily injury.

The rates are priced specially to cover vacation travel and are "very attractive," Mr. Ridinger said.

The Etna Accident Ticket also pays up to $500 medical expense for physician, surgeon, hospital confinement or trained nurse for accidental bodily injury.

The cost is only 50 cents for 24 hours

Sliding Scale

On the application for the vacation "ticket" insurance, the buyer indicates the number of days for which he wishes coverage and indicates the hour at which the coverage is to commence. The special coverage is available to persons aged 2½ years through 69.

The sliding scale of rates for the special travel insurance tickets ranges from 50 cents for 24 hours to 80 cents for two days, $1.10 for three days, $1.35 for four days, $1.60 for five days and on up to $8.10 for 60 days.

The "ticket" will pay $5,000 for loss of life or limb and $2,500 for the loss of a hand or foot.

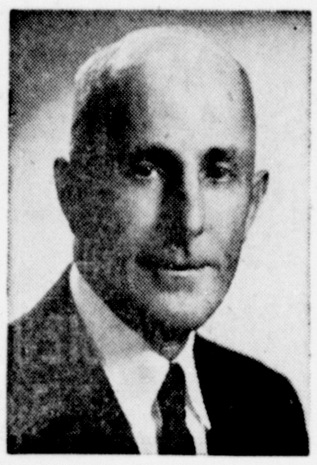

For Frequent Traveler

For the frequent traveler, there is another Etna Travel Accident policy that Mr. Ridinger can provide. It will pay for loss of life, limbs or sight resulting directly and independently of all other causes from accidental bodily injuries occurring within 90 days from the date of accident while the insured is a passenger in or on but not an operator or member of a crew of a public conveyance on land, water or in the air. This includes customary travel by train, bus, taxicab, subway, ship or commercial airline.

This Aetna does not cover travel in a private auto or in military air transport craft.

Several plans are available in this Travel Accident policy offering up to $50,000 for loss of life. The annual premium costs range

Mother Can Enjoy Home Cooking At "Cupboard"

The family-style home-cooking at the Dutch Cupboard is going to lure a lot of families from this area—and tourists too—to the cheery, home-like dining rooms at the Baltimore St. eating place this weekend.

It's an ideal place to take Mother and the rest of the family for a Mother's Day treat—dining out on the tasty Pennsylvania Dutch dishes served daily at the Dutch Cupboard.

The popularity of the Dutch Cupboard has been growing steadily as its fame spreads. Many customers return to dine again on the Pennsylvania Dutch cooking that has made the local eating place famous through many states and not a few foreign countries. Tourists who have eaten there send their friends to enjoy the good eating that they remember there on their Gettysburg visits.

The old adage that the "way to a man's heart is through his stomach" is expected to be applied to a great many feminine diners this weekend as folk pick the Mother's Day weekend to "eat out" at the Dutch Cupboard.

Use Old Favorite Recipes

That "wonderful good" home-cooking is done by recipes handed down to Mrs. Margaret F. Scott, the proprietress, by her Pennsylvania German grandmothers. As in the olden days, only the best foods go into the making of the luscious Pennsylvania Dutch dishes but added to them are the know-how and modern means of preparation.

Mrs. Scott, who has been operating the Dutch Cupboard for the last six years on Baltimore St. across the street from the Jennie Wade Museum, is a descendant of the Fitz family that settled years ago in the Blue Ridge Summit area. Recipes handed down to her grandmothers are in daily use at the Dutch Cupboard.

Outdoors swings a Duncan-Hines approved sign giving testimony to the modern stamp of approval on the Dutch Cupboard and its food and service but inside in the homey, pine and maple furnished dining rooms there is an old fashioned homelike atmosphere that makes a fitting setting for the home-style cooking served up to patrons there.

Good Cooking Wears Well

The hemlock green and primrose yellow color scheme for the interior provides a pleasant setting for the many hand-painted antique items which ornament the walls, cupboards and shelves.

Thmere are souvenirs, recipe books of Pennsylvania Dutch concoctions and others gift items on sale at the restaurant. There are also for sale homemade dressings, schmierkase and applebutter.

Breakfasts, lunches and dinners are served there every day in the year excepting the week from December 23 to 30.

Pennsylvania Dutch mottoes and sayings are springled about the tables and wall ornaments and there's one that seems specially fitting—it tells about good cooking being more durable than kissing for a steady diet. It goes like this: "Kissin' wears out—good cookin' don't."

Unlike almost all operas, Verdi composed no overture for his "Otello." The curtain goes up and Shakespeare's tragedy, "Othello," begins. Later Verdi's music begins.

This familiar spot is the front of the Britcher and Bender Drug Store in the first block of Chambersburg St. Founded by Frank Britcher and the late George Bender, the business has been conducted at this site for two decades. (Times Photo)

Top Singing Stars In New Turner Film

Two reigning song stars are heard — and one of them seen as well — in "Imitation Of Life," Universal's new version of the famous Fannie Hurst novel which opens Wednesday at the Majestic Theater for a four-day run.

Unseen, but very much heard, is Decca star Earl Grant, who does the title song. The music is by Sammy Fain, with words by Paul Francis Webster, and Decca also is issuing a "single" of the number.

Also singing in the picture — and very much seen as well — in one of the dramatic highlights of the production, is the famed Negro spiritual songstress, Mahalia Jackson. It is Miss Jackson who sings "Trouble Of The World" during the elaborate funeral services for beloved "Annie" in the picture.

A third song, a sultry blues number newly written by Arnold Hughes and Frederick Herbert, also is performed in the picture. It's done by Susan Kohner in a New York night club sequence.

Johnson, Cagey Operator, Has Knack For Compromise; Good Presidential Prospect

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson—consciously or not—has created an image of himself which will come in handy if the Democrats in 1960 have to keep peace in the family by settling on a compromise presidential candidate.

This is the image of the tall Texan which emerges after his years as leader of the Senate Democrats and one of the most powerful men in Washington: A rather conservative compromiser who gets things done.

The 50-year-old Johnson who, like President Eisenhower, had a heart attack, has pooh-poohed the thought of presidential ambitions. This writer is one of those who has never been convinced.

Balm For Egos

Johnson, like others in public life, has a large ego. And to him power, even if it only means senatorial power and doesn't extend to the presidency, is very important. The White House carries with it supreme power and balm for egos.

The Democrats' overwhelming congressional victory in 1958, which meant they could now they would take a strong liberal turn and consider their victory a mandate to do so.

Others in Washington, remembering something, took a more limited view: Johnson and his counterpart in the House, Speaker Sam Rayburn, a fellow-Texan, not only completely bossed Democrats in Congress but have shown themselves over the years to be essentially conservative.

Middle Of Road

So it could be assumed that with their power and attitude they would lead Congress down a middle road And that's what they've done so far in this first session after last year's election triumph.

But to any Northern liberals dissatisfied with his leadership, Johnson can offer a solid and realistic explanation:

True, the Democrats as a party far outnumber Senate Republicans. But Democrats and Republicans are divided up into a small group of liberals and a big majority of conservatives in both parties, particularly among Southern Democrats.

Realignments

On any issue they considered too liberal, the conservatives of both parties could and would team up, throwing aside party labels.

Yet, on the liberal side Johnson can point to something no liberal or any other Senate leader in this century can claim: He engineered through the Senate in 1957 the first civil rights program of modern times.

It was much less than the liberals wanted, much more than the Southerners could easily accept But it was a step forward in the civil rights field, opened the door to more of the same later, and was done without splitting the Senate Democrats.

Liberals and Southern Democrats may have grumbled about Johnson's performance but he came through the experience without engendering any hostility for himself. Quite a performance, particularly if a man has presidential ambitions.

Optimum Dosage

And this year again he is working to steer through some further expansion in civil rights. If he does, it's a good bet the bill again will be too little for the liberals, too much for the Southerners, but not enough either way to hurt the party or him.

Johnson acts like a man who long ago figured this way:

"In the Senate, with all its divergent views, if I ever hope to get anything done, I'll have to compromise. Some progress is better than none. And compromise between North and South is the only way I can get Democrats to stay together."

It's doubtful that in 1960 Northern liberals will make Johnson their first choice for the presidency. But if they try to ram through someone who makes the Southerners gag, a compromise candidate may be necessary.

Johnson can protest he has no presidential thoughts, but his fellow Texans are preparing, just in case: Their Legislatare has passed bills which would let Johnson run for both the Senate and the presidency in 1960.

SPRING FEVER AFFECTS EVEN N. Y. TRAFFIC

NEW YORK (AP)—New York is a beautiful town.

Right now after a hard spring and a winter so stern its icicles stuck out like cactus thorns, eight million New Yorkers listen to the drum of revival.

In the warm, bright air, Manhattan turns toward tomorrow with a yawn of sureness.

It is wonder all over. Now you don't know where the next bud or smile or traffic ticket will bloom from.

Specs And Freckles

The sun, emerging from weeks of clouds, breaks out dark glasses and decrees ten times ten million freckles.

The magic moment of difference has come. The policeman gives an unfinished lecture. Traffic goes more slowly than usual because this is a day when everybody is going to be later than usual and not mind it.

At this time of the year, New York gives you the feeling of a bubble coming out of a bottle.

The town has an ever-renewable champagne excitement.

New York is the place where George Washington was sworn in as president and gruff Mark Twain growled about his chow and put out the "welcome mat" for mysterious strangers from heaven.

New York is a place of adventure to strangers. Millions journey around the world to see it.

New York is as colloquial as the smallest country town, able with its gossip to stir mighty echoes.

New York is the world's greatest landscape for dreamers, a pasture beyond individual ownership.

New York is the most open and hospitable municipality in the land. It's the kind of place where the first thing a guy wants to do when he comes here is to bring in a relative.

New York is the only city in the world which has a running race over whether it can tear itself down faster than it can build itself up.

Saudi Arabia has no navigable river.

IKE TO VISIT AF ACADEMY

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower plans to visit the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., some time before June 4.

Announcing this Thursday, the White House said Eisenhower had hoped to be there June 4 for graduation of the first class, but that pressure of his schedule had ruled it out.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty said no specific date has been picked yet.

Hagerty was asked whether the President might combine the visit with a weekend stay in Denver, the home of Mrs. Eisenhower's ailing mother, Mrs. John S. Doud.

"He might, but I just don't know," Hagerty said.

Hagerty provided no elaboration as to the nature of official business which caused Eisenhower to change his mind about attending the commencement exercises. However, the foreign ministers conference starting Monday in Geneva may be ending early in June. That could require Eisenhower's presence in Washington.

Police Wait For Burglars To Rob, Then Arrest Them

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—Tipped-off police hid out of the way Thursday night while burglars robbed almost a million dollars in gems and furs from the hotel apartment of banker - socialite Mrs. Mary G. Roebling.

Then, the burglary complete, detectives arrested two of the gang as they stepped out of the hotel elevator ladened with the loot. A third was arrested outside in a getaway car.

New York cops had been tailing the burglars since Feb. 2 and had followed them here by car Thursday afternoon.

Detectives waited patiently while the burglars went about their business in Mrs. Roebling's lavish apartment in the Hotel Hildebrecht.

No One At Home

Police said the men got in by slipping a piece of celluloid into the door latch after first telephoning to make sure no one was home.

Arrested were Morris Hess, 35, and David Lerner, 47, both Brooklyn, and Alexander Spica, 47, of Manhattan.

"This is a lotta nonsense," said Spica to news cameramen flashing his picture at police headquarters.

"We are people who have families, you know," said Hess.

Million Dollar Loot

Among the loot they carried in a cardboard box was a mink coat valued at $10,000; an emerald necklace ($140,000), a ruby necklace ($100,000), and many other gems. Police said the total was nearly one million dollars.

"I really don't know what the total value would be," said Mrs. Robeling, 52, often listed among the nation's best dressed women. "I will have to check with my insurance man."

Was On TV Show

She had been dining at the plush "21" Club in Manhattan and dashed home to Trenton. Friends said she was "perturbed."

Her swank apartment was in the public eye only a few weeks ago when Edward R. Murrow brought his "Person to Person" television show there to interview the wealthy widow.

Mrs. Roebling, who once said "a woman's place is no longer in the kitchen," is president of the Trenton Trust Co., one of the state's largest banks, a director of at least 24 companies, and recently became the first woman member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Trailed Three Months

She is the widow of the grandson of the builder of the Brooklyn Bridge.

The New York safe, loft and truck squad, had been following the men for three months. They bundled into their cars when Hess, Lerner and Spica drove out of the city Thursday. They almost lost them twice in traffic.

Hess told police he had become interested when he saw a newspaper picture last week of Mrs. Roebling wearing an emerald brooch.

The burglars were held on charges of breaking, entry and larceny.

HERTER TELLS NATION YANKS WILL BE FIRM

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Christian A. Herter takes off for the Geneva conference today after serving notice to the Soviets they must match concession for concession to end the danger of war.

Herter outlined America's position for the East-West talks starting Monday in a nationally broadcast address Thursday night.

The secretary conferred for 20 minutes with President Eisenhower this morning before heading off for the Geneva meeting with the foreign ministers of Britain, France and Russia. Herter left the White House without comment to reporters.

Half-Hour Address

In his half-hour address the new secretary pledged firmness and intent to negotiate in good faith. He called on the Communists too for "businesslike negotiations and not a propaganda exercise."

He set forth three basic guidelines of Western policy for the negotiations and summed them up, saying:

"The heart of our policy can be clearly and simply said to be this: A Germany reunited in freedom, a security system linked with arrangements for arms control, and in the interim a free and secure Berlin."

Herter said that in the Geneva talks, the West would "honestly and in good faith seek some advance, even if small, toward a just peace."

No Fear, Appeasement

He ruled out fear and appeasement in negotiating with the Reds, who set off the current crisis by proposing moves that could force the Allies to turn over West Berlin.

But he cautioned against great expectations from the Geneva parley. He said the past record of the Soviets shows "the best we can look for is slow progress toward the ultimate goal of international stability which only a just peace will bring."

HARRY TRUMAN IS 75 TODAY

NEW YORK (AP)—This is the day Harry S. Truman celebrates his 75th anniversary, eats a $100 filet mignon dinner and addresses a coast-to-coast birthday party.

Festivities in 16 cities are being linked by closed circuit television. There will be about 50,000 guests.

The ex-president, spotlighted on the flower-decked dais of the Waldorf-Astoria's grand ballroom, is going to see and hear plenty.

Included in the 90-minute program is a film biography of his career, "Man of Decision," produced by Dore Schary; appearances by a stellar array including Jimmy Durante, Jack Benny and Danny Kaye; and speeches from Boston by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) and from Chicago by Adlai Stevenson, twice Democratic candidate for the presidency.

The bill of fare at the Waldorf-Astoria includes lobster bisque laced with brandy; filet mignon, individual ice cream cakes at each table and a seven-tier cake ablaze with 75 candles.

Gettysburg Fire Company base radio station, probably by June 1, and then the monitors in the various fire houses will be installed and adjusted to the signal to be sent from the local station.

Hoke listed these fire companies as having either received or ordered monitor systems: Gettysburg, Fairfield, Cashtown, Arendtsville, Biglerville, Bendersville, East Berlin, Abbottstown, New Oxford, Conewago, Centennial, McSherrystown, Brushtown, Bonneauville, Littlestown, Kingsdale, Barlow and Midway.

Those companies currently considering purchase of monitors, and for which, in some cases, applications for the purchase have been approved are Fountaindale, Aspers, York Springs, Hampton, Irishtown and Greenmount.

Improve Ambulance Service

The monitors and "quick-call" system are being purchased through Civil Defense Matching Funds. In the case of the "quick-call' device, the other half of the cost will be born by the county. In most of the other planned installations the borough or township involved is paying half the cost.

Designed specifically to give an immediate alarm in case of Civil Defense emergency, the electronic devices can also be used for fire alarms when various companies need assistance.

Gettysburg Assistant Fire Chief Francis I. Linn reported installation of a relay system by which fire ambulances will be able to talk directly to the Warner Hospital while enroute with patients. A relay was established from the local fire company base station to the hospital and now ambulance drivers, when they call from their vehicles by radio, will be calling directly to the hospital to report needs of the patients.

YOUNG MOTHER SUICIDES

SELINSGROVE, Pa. (AP)—A 32-year-old mother of two children was found dead from hanging in her home here today, state police reported.

Dr. William Weber, Snyder County coroner, identified the woman as Mrs. Shirley Mae Umstead. He issued a suicide verdict. The woman was found by her husband Ralph, who said she had been despondent over ill health.

Approximately 70 per cent of the total dollars for a new U.S. supersonic bomber will be paid to firms other than the prime contractor.

comprise this corps organized to conduct ambulance service in Adams County. These men, also serve without pay. They operate two ambulances and are subject to call 24 hours a day and seven days a week.

$7,000 was received in the solicitation last year and the firemen are hopeful that this amount will be exceeded this year. More money is needed. The money is used to buy fire trucks, equipment and materials and also to purchase ambulances.

Money is constantly being set aside for use when the occasion warrants. Fire trucks are expensive and only through these donations can the firemen keep themselves modernly equipped to fight all types of fire.

Approximately 450 ambulance calls were made last year and the firemen responded to approximately 10 fire alarms. Fortunately not to many severe. Because of the efficient service of the firemen fire insurance rates here are as low as anywhere and in a great many instances, lower.

Another use the money will be put is to help pay for the $6,000 dining room being constructed at the Rec Field which will also be available to the Rec program without charge.

The town solicitation will begin Monday at 6:30 o'clock. It will be a door-to-door solicitation. Harold C. Hockensmith will be in charge and he has asked as many firemen as are able to report at the engine house each evening at 6 o'clock to serve until the solicitation is completed. The work will start in the north end of town, then to the west, south and east end.

Glenn Raffensperger is in charge of the out-of-town solicitation. Monday his committee will cover routes one and two; Tuesday, Thursday and Friday on route three; Wednesday they will complete any unfinished work on routes one and two.

Paul B. Fox is in charge of the solicitation of merchants. His work will be done through letters. In this way the merchant is not disturbed during his business hours.

Robert Hartman is general chairman of the anniversary program committee and his co-chairmen are Francis I. Lynn and Robert S. Neary.

WELFARE LAW

to secure support, Miss MacMillan said, are part of a drive that is almost nationwide and is aimed at the unwed mother. Those concerned with the administration of assistance and welfare programs universally contend that the problem of the unwed mother is much overemphasized.

Other Approach

The opinion was generally expressed that the answer to many of the assistance, welfare and delinquency problems lies in better "service" in dealing with families. One county assistance board member said he feels that caseworkers have too many cases and cannot give enough help with such problems as planning budgets and management of the home.

His suggestion for Adams County was that an additional caseworker with special training be engaged to advise families. Others had different ideas about the method but all in the group expressed the opinion that more help in the way of counseling is one of the best means of coping with social problems.

As one put it, it would be the application of the "preventative" rather than the "curative."

House bill 1339 which would amend the Public School Code of 1949 to provide for the education and training of emotionally disturbed and socially maladjusted children was praised as "a great way to reduce juvenile delinquency."

Another bill mentioned (House 195) would provide reimbursement to school districts of $1 per day up to 40 days for each migratory child attending public school in the district.

Growing Recognition

Miss MacMillan said, "There is a growing recognition of the need for such services."

Mrs. Leonard H. Dudman represented the commissioner of Public Assistance and discussed briefly some of the problems in connection with setting of assistance standards.

The Rev. Charles E. Held, chairman of the committee of arrangements for the meeting, conducted the session. Others on the committee were the Rev. A. W. Geigley, Mrs. Donna Madsen, and Mrs. Myers.

Trials will continue Monday with the murder case against Thomas Brown, Gettysburg R. 1, among the cases to be heard next week.

Students of the eighth grade at St. Francis Xavier Catholic School visited the court house today under the program for such visitations by school youngsters arranged by the county bar association.

Throughout the week those students from the various schools visiting the court house have, as part of their tour, spent some time attending the trials. The eighth graders had just entered the court room and were seated when the replevin action folded. Judge W. C. Sheely, however, explained what they would have heard had the case continued.

cal, emotional and social values." He asked, "In the world in which we live today, with its tensions, what better way is there to relax than in physical activity?"

He also pointed out that athletics are important for women who, as mothers, are the principal teachers of children.

Miss Nancy Hood, president of the WAA, presided and introduced the guests, including the new WAA president, Miss Sue Ruby. Miss Kenney, Miss Nancy K. Mitchell and Miss Nancy Kelly, of the women's athletic faculty staff, made presentations of a number of awards to team members.

Win Cups

All-sports cup awards, made annually, went to Delta Gamma, first place, and Phi Mu, second place. They were received by the Misses Marilyn Schalick and Diane Fenstermaker, respectively, on behalf of the sororities.

The Noerr award, made this year for the second time and based on scholarship, athletics and character, was made to Miss Schalick.

Varsity basketball team members given awards were Linda Walsh, Marilyn Schalick, Linda Rohrer, Barbara Sampson, Lynn Brown and Marsh Zuroski.

Key awards made to individuals on the basis of points earned through participation in athletic activities were earned by Lynne Bonney, Sue Bower, Sue Britcher, Diane Fenstermaker, Kay Horner, Doris Kurzenknabe, Carol Lunn, Sue Ruby, Barbara Sampson, Audrey Thomas and Joan Wachob.

A series of subjects relating to sanitation in canning plants was discussed at an all-day conference of representatives of local food processors at the C. H. Musselman Company plant in Biglerville Wednesday.

The conference was sponsored jointly by the National Canners Association, Washington, D. C., laboratory and the Pennsylvania Canners' Association.

Attended by 50 foremen, mechanics and others directly concerned with plant sanitation from the Knouse Foods Cooperative, Peace Glen; Charles G. Summers Jr., Inc., New Freedom; D. E. Winebrenner Company, Hanover; the Hanover Canning Company, and the C. H. Musselman Company, the subjects discussed with the food and drug laws, prevention of product contamination, the relation of sanitation, safety and fire prevention, applications of bacteriology to canning plant sanitation and processing, in- and out-of-plant waste control and the plant cleaning problem.

The program was conducted by J. W. Bell, C. W. Rohrer and S. A. Ebbert of the NCA lab staff at Washington.

A similar conference for canners in the York County area was conducted Tuesday at Shrewsbury and a third will be held in the West Chester-Kennett Square area for mushroom canners.

EMPLOYMENT UP IN PENNA.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's employment picture appeared brighter today on the basis of a report by the Labor and Industry Department.

Statistics released Wednesday showed that the number of jobless workers as of mid-April was 413,000—the lowest in 16 months.

Secretary William L. Batt Jr. said the number of unemployed dropped appreciably more than usual from mid-March to mid-April.

He added that the 413,000 persons out of work in mid-April represented 8.9 per cent of the total civilian labor force and was 44,000 less than the month before.

"The current estimate marked the lowest level in both number and rate of unemployed since December 1957 although 173,000 above the pre-recession level of September 1957 when the total unemployed was measured at 240,000 and 5.1 of the civilian labor force," Batt said.

He noted that the jobless decline in mid-April was about 10,000 more than normally expected for the period.

BIG KLU'S BAT BEATS PHILLIES IN 10TH FRAME

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Muscular Ted Kluszewski of the Pittsburgh Pirates, used mostly as a pinch-hitter this season, just won't give up in his battle for the regular first base job.

The big slugger came off the bench Thursday night to start against the Philadelphia Phillies. He quickly pepped up the sagging Pirate offense with two singles and a 10th inning home run for a 5-4 victory.

Klu raised his batting average to .480 with 12 hits in 25 trips. The homer was his first of the year.

Prefers Regular Work

Afterward Kluszewski remarked happily that he believes he could do just as well if he played regularly. He added:

"I prefer to play regularly, rather than sit around on the bench. I just know the more I play, the better I hit.

"I've never felt so great as I do this season. Last year it was a bad back. But this season my swing is smoother and I feel I'm getting more power behind it."

"As for the team," he added, "we've got as much chance as anybody else to win the pennant. A few of the fellows are in a slump now but when they start hitting, we'll be off and running."

In 6th Place

The Pirates took undisputed possession of sixth place by beating the Phils. Reliever Roy Face, pitching only one inning and giving up a hit, recorded his fourth straight victory of the season against no losses.

Face replace starter Vernon Law, who gave up nine hits, struck out three and walked one in the nine innings he pitched.

Jim Owens went the full 10 innings for Philadelphia and was charged with his second loss against one victory. Owens gave up seven hits, walked four and struck out two.

Release Porterfield

The Phillies scored on a two-run homer by Harry Anderson in the second and another two-run circuit clout by Ed Bouchee in the fifth.

Pittsburgh garnered four runs in the sixth on an error, a base on balls, a single by Kluszewski, and infield out, a single by Dick Groat and a booming double by Billy Virdon.

Meanwhile, the Pirates announced the cutting of veteran righthander Bob Porterfield from their roster. Porterfield came to Pittsburgh last year on waivers from the Boston Red Sox.

STAN MUSIAL SMASHES HIS 400TH HOMER

ST. LOUIS (AP)—"Gosh, that's a lot of home runs for a singles hitter."

This was the reaction of Stan (The Man) Musial Thursday night after he smashed the 400th hhomer of his major league career—a figure reached by only five other players in baseball history.

The 37-year-old great of the St. Louis Cardinals was jubilant—but not because he had joined the "400 Club." He was happy because the homer led off the ninth and gave the last-place Red Birds a 4-3 victory over Chicago.

Puts It On Roof

It was a majestic 400-plus-foot smash high onto the pavilion roof in right-center field.

Not many of the 7,291 fans realized Stan had joined the select list which includes only the names of Babe Ruth (714), Jimmy Foxx (534), Mel Ott (511), Lou Gehrig (493) and Ted Williams (482).

A newsman asked the Card star how his 400th homer compared as a thrill to his 3,000th hit—a mark reached by only seven other players in the game's history.

2nd For Season

"No comparison at all," said Stan. Then he was reminded only five others have done it. Stan's expression was one of disbelief.

"You mean only five other guys have hit that many?" he asked. "You're kidding."

This was only his second homer of the season. He's batting only .268.

"I don't pretend to be a home run hitter," he said, but added, with some pride:

"It's a long season at my age, but I'll be up there over .300."

His 3,000th hit was in Chicgo last year.

GRAHAM WILL CUT DOWN ON HIS ACTIVITIES

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Billy Graham said that he is feeling fine but intends to curtail his non-crusade activities on returning to the United States in mid-June.

The American evangelist said he is going to resign from a number of executive boards and organizations.

"I am going to concentrate on speaking at these crusades and in study preparing for them," he said.

Graham, who has had trouble with his left eye since before arriving in Australia in February, reported the eye is almost back to normal.

Indianapolis Next

"For the first time in many weeks I can read out of my left eye," he said.

Graham has drawn a total attendance of 1,458,000 in Australia and 335,000 in New Zealand since the crusade began Down Under. With a dozen more Australian meetings to go, the total attendance seems sure to top the two million mark.

Sunburned and looking fit, Graham spoke enthusiastically with newsmen about future plans. His next crusade in the United States is scheduled for Indianapolis, in October.

MASS 'CHUTE JUMP TODAY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Thousands of spectators headed toward Woodville State Farm near Pittsburgh today for an Army mass parachute jump in honor of Pittsburgh's bicentennial celebration.

"Operation Pittsburgh," with some 730 paratroopers participating, was the first mass practice jump scheduled by the U. S. Defense Dept. in any area other than a military reservation.

The 327th infantry group of the 101st Airborne Division came from Fort Campbell, Ky., for the combined Army-Air Force exercise—a simulated attack on an imaginary missile site.

Twenty-eight planes were readied to drop the troops from about 1,250 feet in an area measuring 1,400 by 700 yards.

Col. Gordon T. Kimbrell, commander of the paratroop group, said the smallness of the drop area and contours of the terrain made the jump a difficult exercise.

"From the air the area looks like an ink well," said Col. Kimbrell.

STAN'S HOMER BRINGS CARDS WIN OVER CUBS

By ED WILKS

Babe Ruth, Jimmy Foxx, Mel Ott, Lou Gehrig, Ted Williams—and now Stan Musial.

Stan the Man, one of baseball's all-time great hitters, hammered his way into that select circle of sluggers Thursday night with his 400th home run—a 400-foot shot leading off the ninth inning at St. Louis that brought the Cardinals a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Musial, at 37, has only two homers in this, his 18th season, but they've come on consecutive nights. And more than coincidentally, perhaps, they've triggered the Cards' first two-game winning "streak" of the year in the National League.

Only Two In Business

The milestone missile into the right-center field pavilion at Busch Stadium coupled Musial with Williams as the only 400 home-run sluggers now in business. Ruth, of course, is the all-time leader with 714. Foxx, the only right-handed belter in the lot, finished with 534. Ott, the only other National Leaguer in the group, hit 511. Gehrig had 493. And Williams, still sidelined by injury this season, has hit 482 for the Boston Red Sox.

Musial's homer climaxed a tremendous day for first basemen in the NL. Norm Larker hit a two-run homer that gave Los Angeles a 2-1 victory over San Francisco, and Ted Kluszewski powered his first home run of the year leading off the 10th inning for a 5-4 Pittsburgh victory over Philadelphia. Those were the only games scheduled in the NL.

In the American League, Baltimore breezed for a 10-1 victory at Washington and Detroit beat Boston 3-1 in the only games scheduled.

The homer was Musial's lone hit of the game. It came off reliever Don Elston (0-1). The Cards' other three runs also came on a homer, with pinch-hitter George Crowe delivering.

That tied it 3-all, after three solo homers off Card starter Lindy McDaniel by the Cubs' Jim Marshall, who hit a pair, and Ernie Banks. Howie Nunn (2-1) was the winner in relief for the last place Cards.

Larker, subbing for Gil Hodges, who pulled a shoulder muscle when he tripled in the second inning, ripped his winning homer in the fourth inning at San Francisco. It came off Jack Sanford (4-2), who had won four straight. The Giants, who pulled off five doubleplays, scored in their fourth on a triple by Willie Mays and Daryl Spencer's sacrifice fly.

Stan Williams (1-0) allowed the Giants but six hits—half of them by Mays. Willie also swung on a 3-0 pitch that would have given him an intentional walk — and fouled out with two men on base in the eighth.

After the game the Dodgers flew home to Los Angeles where they lost an exhibition night game to the New York Yankees 6-2 before 93,103, baseball's largest crowd ever.

SAYS YANKEES STILL THE TEAM TO BEAT IN AL

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Lane doesn't believe the New York Yankees' current second division play is the result of a team slump, but is due rather to the improvement of the rest of the American League.

"The Yankees in a slump?" repeated the Cleveland Indians general manager. "I wonder. I think it's just a continuation of the way they played the last two months of the 1958 season."

The Yankees' current sub .500 showing, which Lane refers to as "somewhat nearer to their normal expectancy," is the best thing that could have happened to baseball, he said.

"A lot of people are happy about the Yankees' plight," said Lane, "partly because they've dominated the league for so long but also because they've shown they are not good winners.

"More important, the rest of the American League has learned that the Yankees are not invincible. When I said that back in the spring they all laughed. They thought I was trying to stuff them up. Now they know it for a fact.

"The Yankees are still a good club and they're still the team to beat but they are going to have a rough time."

Wins Norris Trophy

MONTREAL (AP)—Tom Johnson of the Montreal Canadiens is the winner of the James Norris Memorial Trophy for the 1958-1959 National Hockey League season, it was announced today. The trophy is awarded annually to "the regular defense player who demonstrates throughout the season the greatest all-round ability in that position."

Johnson received 92 of a possible 180 points in the poll of hockey writers, broadcasters and telecasters in the six league cities.

Chambersburg Boy On Spree Of Crime

A 13-year-old Chambersburg boy was released into the custody of his parents after admitting to Chambersburg police that he stole nearly $1,000 in cash and checks from a drawer at a Chambersburg grocery while the proprietor was occupied in another part of the store. He said he hid the money bag in the shed of a neighbor.

The boy also admitted stealing $112 from the same store several weeks ago and spending it in "having a good time." The $1,000 was returned.

Investigators quoted the boy as saying he slashed the coats of four fellow junior high school students several weeks ago because they were "tormenting" him.

He will appear at the next session of juvenile court.

4 ROCHESTER MEN NAMED TO ALL-STAR TEAM

NEW YORK (AP)—Four members of the Rochester Americans and two of the first place Buffalo Bisons today comprised the American Hockey League all-star team for 1958-59.

Hershey Places 2

The Calder Cup playoff champions, Hershey Bears, placed two players — goaltender Bobby Perreault and defenseman Larry Zeidel — on the second team. The Springfield Indians, who finished fifth, also had two members on the alternate team, center Harry Pidhirny and rightwing Ken Schinkel. The others were Frank Martin of Buffalo on defense and Eddie Mazur of Cleveland at forward.

Each of the players chosen for the first team receives a league bonus of $300 and a gold miniature hockey puck, while the second team selectees receive $200 each and silver pucks.

The voting was done by American League hockey writers, TV and radio broadcasters.

Migay was the only unanimous choice, getting the maximum 30 points. Kraftcheck and Aldcorn had 28 each, Irwin and Hicke had 26 and, Paille 24.

BRIDGETON, N.J. (AP) — Rehabilitation of the handicapped not only means using the total of human resources, but also means "rehabilitating human dignity and self-respect as well," Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-NJ) said Thursday.

Case praised the record of American industry in hiring disabled armed forces veterans.

The senator's remarks were prepared for a luncheon at which the P. J. Ritter Co. received the annual national American Legion "Employ the Physically Handicapped" citation.

Breakfasts in most European countries consists of hot cereal, ham and sausage, but in Holland it is likely to be cold meat and cheeses with coffee and chocolate being the only hot items.

Nation's No. 1 G-Man To Celebrate 35th Anniversary

Editors note—For millions of Americans, J. Edgar Hoover is the FBI. On May 10 he celebrates the 35th anniversary of his appointment of director.

By JACK ADAMS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's No. 1 G-man reaches an important milestone Sunday — 35 eventful years as boss of the FBI, and the longest tenure for a federal agency head in the country's history.

But there is every evidence that John Edgar Hoover has the same drive and zest for his job that marked his wonder boy era back in the roaring twenties.

That era had its start when Hoover, just 29, was placed in charge of a discredited, scandal-ridden organization of political hacks whose staff reputedly included some ex-convicts. It is history now—the story of how he cleaned out the bureau with a stern hand and went ahead to make it one of the world's most renowned and most respected investigative agencies.

64 On Jan. 1

Hoover, who passed his 64th birthday last Jan. 1, has no thought of retiring.

A few days ago he told me: "Old age will have to run mighty fast to catch up with me."

The FBI director serves at the pleasure of whoever happens to be attorney general. Hoover, who has no political affiliation, has held the job under five Presidents and a dozen attorneys general, Democrat and Republican.

Two Names Mentioned

Who would succeed Hoover if he should retire? One rarely hears talk about a successor, but two names are mentioned occasionally; Clyde A. Tolson, the associate director who has worked at Hoover's side for 31 years, and Edward A. Tamm, who was assistant to Hoover for 20 years before accepting a federal district judgeship in the District of Columbia.

A bachelor, Hoover lives in a modest home in a fashionable Washington neighborhood with his two Cairn terriers — G-Boy and Tucker—and raises roses in his leisure hours.

He believes in keeping fit. Just under 6 feet, he watches his diet and keeps his weight at 175 pounds. Weather permitting, he daily dismisses his car a mile short of his office in the Justice department building and strides the last lap at a gait that frequently winds companions.

Reads A Lot

Hoover reads several newspapers every day—including the comic strips and everything in the sports section. His favorite books are the biographies of great Americans.

At the office, he maintains constant personal touch with everything of importance that is going on at the moment. There is a standing rule that any employe who wants to see him is only to ask.

Out of a treasure trove of memories as gangbuster, crusader against communism, constant champion of better-trained, better-paid police, what does Hoover remember best?

Some Big Days

May 10, 1924, of course. That was the day Atty. Gen. Harlan Fiske Stone, later Chief Justice of the United States, called him in to take over the FBI.

May 1, 1936—Hoover flew to New Orleans and personally arrested Alvin Karpis, the No. 1 badman of his day, who had been boasting that he planned to rush Hoover's office in Washington and kill him.

Dec. 7, 1941—Pearl Harbor Day. Says Hoover: "When the Japanese bombs hit Pearl Harbor, we in the FBI placed into immediate operation previously prepared plans for guarding the nation's internal security. I was proud of the way FBI employes responded to the challenge—working around the clock to do their job. This was typical of their loyalty to duty."

Broke Spy Case

And finally, May 22, 1950. That was the day that Harry Gold, master Soviet atomic spy, confessed his activities after being picked up by the FBI, a confession which broke the back of atomic spying in this country.

"Those were busy days at the FBI," Hoover recalls. "Atomic bomb secrets had been stolen by the Russians. The spy was here in the United States — somewhere. We had to find him. We did—a chemist in Philadelphia, Harry Gold. This meant that one of our most important cases had been solved."

Gold, who pleaded guilty to an espionage charge, is now serving a 30-year prison term.

SAMUEL HOARE DIES THURSDAY

LONDON (AP) — Sir Samuel Hoare, a prewar British foreign secretary, died Thursday night after a brief illness. He was 79.

Hoare had a brilliant political career spanning more than three decades, but he was as much remembered for one of his setbacks—the secret Hoare-Laval pact of 1935—as for anything else.

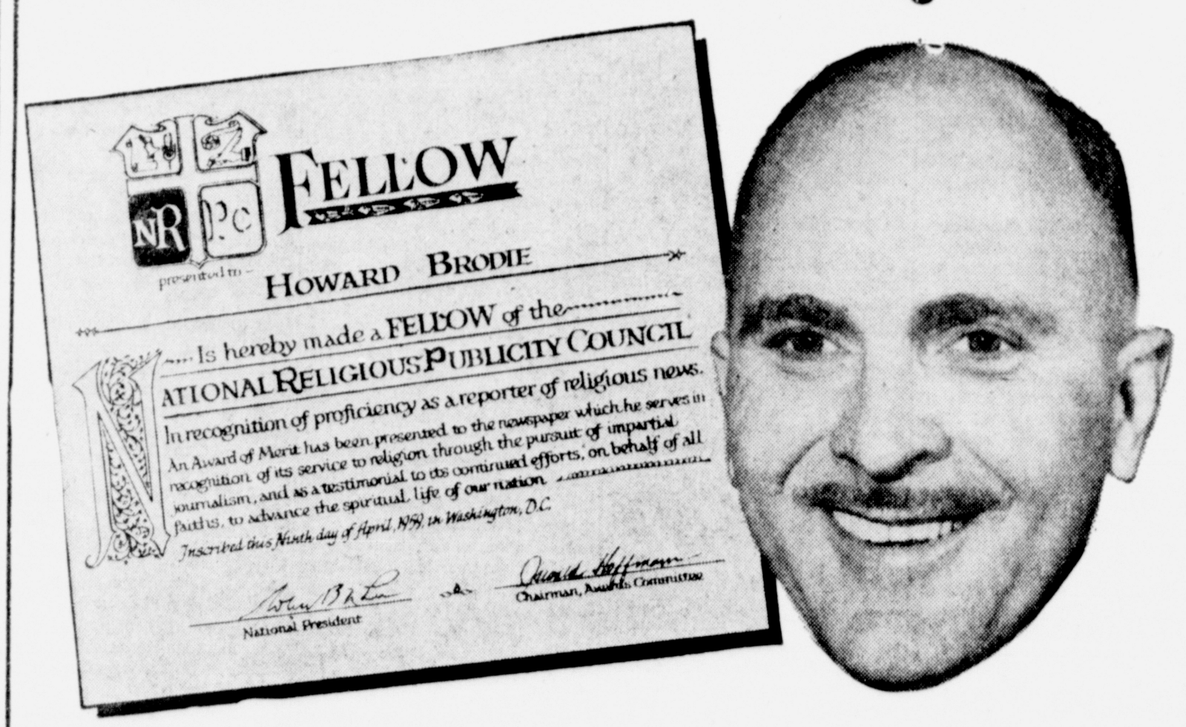

With Pierre Laval, then French foreign minister, he agreed on a plan to settle the Ethiopian war by giving Italian Premier Benito Mussolini territorial grants and economic advantages in most of Ethiopia.

The terms leaked out, and Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin's government was accused on all sides of abandoning the League of Nations, which was trying to stop the war by sanctions against Italy. Hoare resigned the foreign secretary's post, which he had held less than a year.

On the positive side, he was a developer of British aviation, parliamentary pilot of the intricate bill which gave India limited home rule in the 1930s, and holder of a wide variety of Cabinet posts.

In Brainerd, Minn., is a huge image of Paul Bunyan, the folklore hero of lumberjacks who was said to have a trimmed pine tree for a pencil.

'Power of Faith' Wins Recognition

For THE POWER OF FAITH feature which he produces and which appears in this paper each week, Howard Brodie has just been named by the National Religious Publicity Council as a Fellow.

This is "in recognition of proficiency as a reporter of religious news."

At the same time, the Council gave an award of merit to AP Newsfeatures which distributes the panel, "in recognition of its service to religion through the pursuit of impartial journalism, and as a testimonial to its continued efforts, on behalf of all faiths, to advance the spiritual life of our nation."

The presentations were made at the Council's 30th anniversary convention in Washington.

Brodie, a onetime combat artist with the U. S. Army, and a well known illustrator who found his own faith in a wartime army hospital, has been drawing and writing THE POWER OF FAITH for nearly two years.

NOTICE

In re: The School District of Franklin Township — Notice of Intention to Adopt Tax Resolution

The Board of School Directors of the School District of Franklin Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania, under and pursuant to the authority of the Act of June 25, 1947, P.L. 1145, and its amendments, hereby gives notice of its intention to adopt a resolution on the 29th day of May, 1959, to be effective July 6, 1959, providing for the imposing, assessing, levying and collection of a tax for general revenue purposes for the said School District, upon admission to places of amusements, theatrical exhibitions and other exhibitions to which an admission or other fee is charged, at the rate of ten (10¢) per cent on the price of each admission; providing for inspection; providing for the payment of said tax; and the method and manner of collecting the tax imposed, assessed and levied by this resolution; and providing exemptions and imposing penalties.

The reason which, in the judgment of the Board of School Directors of the School District of Franklin Township, necessitates the imposing of the tax is the need for additional funds for building maintenance and improvements.

The amount of revenue estimated to be derived from the tax is approximately One Thousand Five Hundred ($1,500.00) Dollars annually.

Farm Prices Show 4 Pct. Decrease

HARRISBURG (AP)—A 4 per cent drop in prices received by Pennsylvania farmers during the month ended April 15 was reported Thursday by the State Agriculture Department.

Lower prices for eggs, poultry and wholesale milk were the principal causes for the drop, the department said.

Prices received for eggs — 33 cents a dozen in mid-April—were the lowest since June 1957. However, higher prices were reported for calves, slaughter animals, feed grains and fruit.

Robbed Grocer Aids Family Of Thief

CHICAGO (AP)—A grocer gave two big bags of food Thursday to the destitute family of an unemployed laborer who was caught stealing $200 worth of food from his store.

Recipient of the food was Mrs. Nancy Brown, 20, mother of two small boys. Her husband, Adolph, 22, was in jail after he was seized attempting to haul away a cart load of grocieres from a store operated by John and Michael Epifanio.

John, 27, explained why he gave the food to Mrs. Brown: "I'm human and I got kids of my own. I wouldn't want to see them go hungry. I can't judge the children for what the father does."

NEW PSU DEAN

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania State University has appointed Merle E. Campbell dean of students affairs for its Commonwealth campuses.

The university also named Norwood A. Hedden head of its Division of Commonwealth Campus Maintenance. Both appointments are effective July 1.
